

DOSE OF DCL

September 18th, 2024

Welcome back, comedy fans, to another edition of Dose of DCL! Another exciting month has passed, and we're still heating up!

WHAT ARE WE UP TO?

It's funny how presidential debates in this country resemble our family dinners nowadays, isn't it? 'Tis the season to belly laugh at the joke that is this election, as well as the jokes of our hilarious comedians!

Desi Comedy Live has been keeping the heat going this past month, with our Giggles & Cheers show on the 13th, and as promised, with our SoCal debut Laughing Lassi on the 21st !

We plan to keep the momentum going as we kick off Spooky Season, starting with Aaja Hans Le on October 5th! You can get your tickets directly on our website desicomedylive.com!

In another news, our open mic nights are back, y'all! We hope you're as excited as we are to showcase new talent and make a grand evening of it! Think you have the punchlines to rock an audience? Be sure to sign up!

OPEN MIC NIGHTS ARE BACK!

Believe it, it's true, we're starting open mic nights again! Whether you've been doing comedy for a while or just want to give it a try, we've got your back! And the best part? It's free! Our next night is Wednesday, September 18th in Pleasanton, and you can sign up at the below link:

See you there!

COMICS' CORNER

What have our comics been up to?

Another month, another...city?! As announced last month, the DCL is taking the stage in Southern California! But the comedy isn't where it ends...on brand with the way we do things, a night of comedy is also a night of music, drinks, and good food! We're excited to say we have expanded our neighborhood!

Look out SoCal, we're coming for you!
