

Holy Roman Empire controls Verona and Italy through 1556
End of Medieval period of history, Renaissance begins -1492

Late Medieval Period of history goes from 1250 - 1492

The construction of this tower begins. - 1100
High Medieval Period of history goes from 1000 - 1250

1405 - Republic of Venice takes control of Verona and most of northern Italy to the east.

1387 - The Visconti of Milan take control of Verona and most of northern Italy to the west.

1387 - The end of the Scaligero Lordship after governing for 120 years, Verona is abandoned.

1336 – Scaligero territory reaches its greatest splendor, in terms of size and wealth.

1259 - Mastino Della Scala is Lord Mayor of Verona when Ezzelino III dies. Scaligero lordship begins.

1226 - 1259 - Ezzelino III takes control of Verona and surrounding area. He has no title and ruled initially against the HRE. After a few years, he formed strong partnership with HRE.

Verona is ruled by various insignificant families while also becoming a free comune.
Family of Count Milo transitions into San Bonifacio family

Lamberti Tower and # the History of Verona

With absolute power based in Germany, Holy Roman Empire replaces Frankish control - 962

Holy Roman Empire is formed created by agreement between emperor and Pope - 800
Franks take control of Italy, the Carolingian Empire installs King of Italy - 774

In order to hide from Barbarian raids, Venice is founded in lagoon - 647

Byzantine Empire (E.R.E.) influences Italy, takes control of Verona for one day in 541. 527 - 565

Although Attila died in 453, he guided the Huns initially when invading Italy from 452 - 469
The Visigoths sack Rome, move toward western Europe. - 410
The Visigoths are defeated in Verona by Roman Army. - 403
Visigoth presence begins within Roman Empire. - 376

774 – 962 Franks take control of Italy, this same Carolingian Empire installs King of Italy.
Hugh, Lambert, Lothair II, and Berengar II were the four kings.

774 - Lombard control of northern Italy ends, while their power continues in the south.

553 - Lombard control of Verona and Italy begins. Verona becomes their second most important city.

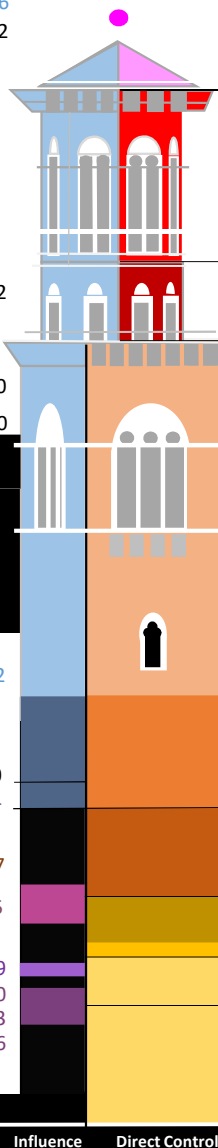

489 - 553 Ostrogoths take Verona. Theodoric begins domination over Italy.

476 - 489 Odoacer, a barbarian leader, becomes King of Italy.

476 - The fall of the Western Roman Empire. Early Medieval period of history begins.

395 - The Roman Empire splits into two separate empires, the eastern and the western.

49 BC – Verona becomes a Roman city. 89 BC – Verona becomes a Roman colony.

Influence Direct Control