

Connected To Care - Event Timetable

10:00 - 11:00 The importance of addressing support, pressure care and effectively minimising patient handling to enable mobilisations and speed up discharge for clients in an acute setting.

Looking at the mental and physical rehabilitation and importance of pain medication, quick mobilization, patient safety and aftercare.

Client Type: 60 year old male patient, obtained an acute injury from a fall at work. Pelvic fractures to the left Iliac Crest and Sacrum, multiple rib fractures with slight puncture to the lung. Shows signs of pneumonia. Also has history of anxiety, depression and alcoholism.

Sue Lenihan – Lead Moving and Handling Advisor, PGCert Ergonomics (Human Factors) Loughborough University Risk Management

11:00-11:30 - Networking Break

11:30 - 12:30 : Bathing solutions for a paediatric client with high complex needs within a small bathroom with limited space.

The most effective method to comfortably, safely and efficiently bathe a client that requires assistance from a parent or care giver. Within a small bathroom with limited space.

Client type: Paediatric/young adult with LD has high postural needs involuntary movement, hyper extension/hip flexion. Nonverbal.

James Smith – Manual Handling Advisor & Independent Consultant, RQS (Recognising Quality Solutions)

12:30-13:30 - Lunch Break and Networking

13:30 - 14:30: Addressing a fall with a plus sized patient within an overcrowded living space.

Addressing the reason for the fall, preventing, and addressing the fall efficiently and safely and protecting the client's modesty.

Client type: Plus sized patient, 30 stone, with reduced mobility and impairments in skin integrity.

Sharon Rindsland – Moving & Handling Senior Co-ordinator, East Kent Hospital University Foundation Trust

14:30 - 15:00 - Lunch Break and Networking

15:00 - 16:00: Single-handed care for a senior client with Dementia and high tissue viability risk in a care home setting.

The importance of offering dignity and adequate transfers from a day chair to a bed and hygiene solutions. The benefits of meeting ADL's, mobilizing the patient via transfers and different settings and keeping the handling risk and tissue viability to a minimum.

Client type: Dementia client, nonverbal with complexed needs - kyphosis, knee contractures & adduction (fetal position)

Jade Godier – Postural management and equipment provision specialist, Made2Aid

16:00-17:00 - RISE @ THIIS Exhibition Hall Exclusive Viewing (In-person only)