

Email Notification by ACBL of your Live for Clubs Results

by Bob Gruber

Under the ACBL Live for Clubs system, the easiest/surest path to view/check your club results is to receive an email from ACBL that game results are ready for viewing. Each such notification email will contain a link that goes directly to the ACBL results web page for the club of interest. Note, you must be an ACBL member to receive these notification emails and the Club Manager must have turned on player email notifications of scores. If both these conditions are met and you've opted in for these emails (ACBL default, I believe), as soon as the director uploads the file(s) for a game, ACBL sends you a notification email.

Setting up notification by ACBL of your club results may be a 2-step process:

1. Register for MyACBL
2. Login to MyACBL; go to Privacy Settings (under Membership); and then click on Click here for Live for Clubs notification preferences

For those that have already registered for MyACBL, this will be a 1-step process and you should skip the next section and go to the section titled Setting Your Club Notification Preference.

Registering for MyACBL

- Go to www.acbl.org
- Click on the MyACBL tab
- Enter your 7-character ACBL member/player number
- Click on: Register for MyACBL – If you do not already ....
- Follow the instructions to establish your MyACBL password

The screenshot shows the "Log In to MyACBL" page. It features a "Member Number" input field, a "Password" input field with an eye icon for toggling visibility, a "Remember Me" checkbox, and a "Log In" button. A blue arrow points from the "Log In" button to the "Register for MyACBL" link. Two callout boxes provide additional instructions: one about the eye icon and another about the registration link.
