

These adorable critters were sold as T-shirts at the San Diego Zoo and through WildSide West— and were great sellers. I painted them in the 80's, when I lived in Boulder Colorado. On high quality watercolor paper and very easy to frame. They were a part of the 55,000 T-shirt designs sold in one year at the SD Zoo. Each art size is approximately 7" x 9.5". Easily framed in a 11 x 14 frame. $475. each. Also available as signed high quality prints for kids rooms.
