

My innocent and wistful version of one of Wm Bouguereau's peasant models. Oil on board with the crackle finish I am known for. I sold many similar portraits in a Palm Desert Gallery for $5,000.00 retail. My theme was always Shakespeare's quote: "The eyes are the windows to the soul." In a lovely contemporary frame with linen. 31 x 38". $345.00