

Dimensional Attunements

from

Cheryl Avis / Infinite SOULutions

In 2023, I began channeling these ground-breaking dimensional attunements that provide an easy way to uplevel your consciousness, release ego and fear, uplevel your physical body's frequency to lift out of the density paradigm of pain and suffering, and get you on your way to living a life of wisdom and grace with abundance in all areas of your life. Attunements are all you need to ascend – no shadow work, no inner child work, no soul fragment – these were trappings of the Old Earth paradigm. These attunements are the leading edge of New Earth energies.

Dimensional Attunements are powerful and life changing. If you are feeling stuck, misunderstood, and misdirected, a dimensional attunement can help lift and shift your life. The level at which you need to begin will be determined intuitively. Even if you were born awake or experienced a sudden awakening, these attunements are important because years of living in Density Reality (3D/4D and low 5D) have conditioned you to not live consciously or energetically.

These attunements bring in the expansion of consciousness and anchor the energy at each level. Attunements shift and expand your consciousness gradually so you will not feel overwhelmed. Most individuals sail through these attunements and benefit from the increased frequency and objectivity they bring almost immediately. For some individuals, there may be times of feeling pushed or overwhelmed by the attunement. This is a sign that your ego is blocking you from accepting the truth. In these instances, it is important to work one on one with your practitioner to push through the negative emotions as the higher frequency is coming in and anchoring. Your ego resisting that upgrade to your vibration is what causes the fear, frustration, etc. Discussing those emotions and asking questions early on can help you avoid shutting down your own growth and expansion.

We all need to anchor in higher frequencies for ourselves and the planet. New Earth will not tolerate the low vibe consciousness or attitudes of Earth's past. You are the Creator of your life experiences, your reality, and the reality you share with others.

5D-7D - Cost $225 – includes 7D Elevated Elixir and 1 hour total/combined Q&A

The initial attunement begins creating a frequency of movement away from drama and emotion (ego) and into the synergistic harmony with the flow of life. This will be the start of the releasing process - the releasing of one's habits concerning drama, socializing, discipline, and acceptances of being in control or out of control. As you release habits, your vocabulary and perspective shift from that of victim / abuser / rescuer into that of mentor / teacher / healer. This frequency begins to teach you how to observe and assess from the ascended heart energy of more understanding and less judgment.

You begin to see that nothing happens to you that you have not attracted through your thoughts. You view your life and its offerings through a different lens - one of you witnessing how things unfold and to see how old reactions contributed to prior outcomes. This expansion of consciousness will provide an increased desire of doing good and being more unified with all that exists.

As you ease into this attunement, you may feel a gravitational pull to New Earth and its properties. An acclimation, if you will, with the changes that are being put in place by Earth itself. (Less fear of earth changes and more understanding that all unfolding is for Earth's highest good and survival.)

The cost of this attunement includes up to 1 hour of personal calls and/or texts for Q&A and coaching as well as a 4-ounce bottle of 7D Elevated Elixir Spray (RV $60) to help support you as you anchor in these new energies.

Heart Space Attunement - Cost $200

During this attunement, the energies within your physical form and energy bodies are divinely unified and balanced using sacred geometry and divinely channeled symbols. During the attunement, old, unnecessary energies are released and cleared, the heart space aligned for further expansion alongside consciousness, and the higher frequencies energies more fully integrated and balanced.

9D - Cost $310 – includes 9D/11D Elevated Elixir and 1 hour total Q&A / Coaching

This level of consciousness will rock your world! The things that bothered you in lower vibrations will roll off you like a gentle breeze. You will quickly discern in each situation that everyone is doing the best they can for the level of consciousness at which they are operating. You will spend less of your energy on things that detract from your personal happiness and growth as people and processes that no longer resonate with you fall away or are appropriately reprioritized.

Your clarity will be upleveled and magnified. You will live less by “the clock” and more through flow. A non-judgmental approach to living will progress and underlie all choices, decisions, and experiences. Being the observer will expand and contract with the desired outcome. Knowing when to release someone or something will come with ease and objectivity of the situations. Replacing daily control with trust brings more joy to your life.

The price of this attunement includes up to 1 hours of calls/texts as well as a 4-ounce bottle of 9D-11D Elevated Elixir Spray (RV $70) to help support you as you anchor in these new energies.

11D - Cost $310 – includes 9D/11D Elevated Elixir and 1 hour total Q&A / Coaching

This is the entry to true Quantum Space. Your perceptions and awareness about and around how you create that which you see sharpens and expands. Your life is graced with objective detachment. No control freaks in 11D as you trust all unfolds exactly as needed. Things in your life that are not for your highest good will disappear from your awareness (e.g., jobs, people, habits). This frequency eases the release of dogma, limiting beliefs, and stuck energies that no longer serve your highest good. You may see a return of your intuition (as New Earth energies become more refined, those who have not had attunements will not be able to “tap in”; living intuitively is complemented by intuition.) Health wise, cells regenerate faster and DNA health improves. Improved mobility; reduced aches and pains.

Price includes 1 hour of calls and texts, if needed. If you had the 9D attunement, that spray will continue to support you in 11D and a refill of the original bottle or new bottle are available upon request with no additional charge.

The germs and viruses are very low vibration and burn up on entry into your energy fields. At this level, you will navigate and comprehend more easily your Quantum Nature.
