Dear Sir,

We have been a business partner of CH Environmental Services since 2017. They have written, implemented and maintained a Business Management System (BMS) for our company that enabled us to obtain ISO 9001 certification. To date we have successfully passed all external certification and annual audits first time.

Following the successful implementation of ISO 9001 we subsequently worked with CH Environmental Services to obtain EN 1090, so that as a business we could CE mark our own products. Again, CH Environmental working as part of our team assisted in writing and implementing this standard, assisting in external audits and enabling our company to pass the external audit and obtain certification.

In addition to the above ISO support provided, we then worked with CH Environmental for providing a safety support service at site for our project work. This encompassed site safety visits and subsequent management reports.

We recommend the services of CH Environmental Services Limited.

We trust the above is in order, but should you require any additional information please contact us on enquires@systems-group.co.uk.

Yours faithfully,

Ryan O'Neill
