

About Crazy Harry's Steakhouse

At Crazy Harry's Steakhouse, everything begins with two simple obsessions: a deep love for exceptional steak and seafood, and an unapologetic passion for remarkable wine.

"Crazy" Harry built his vision around the idea that dining should never be ordinary. It should be bold, indulgent, and unforgettable. From hand-selected cuts of premium beef to the freshest Pacific Northwest seafood, paired with a wine list curated for discovery and delight, every detail reflects his relentless pursuit of flavor and experience.

Together with Executive Chef Mike Salutan, Crazy Harry's brings a refined yet welcoming steakhouse to the heart of the Olympic Peninsula. Chef Salutan blends classic steakhouse tradition with modern culinary precision—delivering dishes that are both timeless and elevated, executed with intention and respect for every ingredient.

Here, hospitality is just as important as what's on the plate. Crisp white tablecloths, attentive service, and a warm, inviting atmosphere set the stage for memorable nights—whether you're celebrating something special or simply enjoying a perfectly cooked steak, fresh seafood, and a glass of world-class wine.

At Crazy Harry's, we would love to cook for you.
