The General Council of Pastors and Elders (Church of God in Christ) Announces collaboration with Aflac

Atlanta, GA, (1/24/2024) The General Council of Pastors and Elders recently teamed up with Aflac to provide access to their plans so that The Church of God in Christ (COGIC) congregation can get help with expenses health insurance doesn't cover.

"The General Council of Pastors and Elders is excited to team up with Aflac to bring our congregations across the US new coverage options," said Chairman Michael Eaddy. "Aflac's supplemental insurance plans provide an additional layer of financial protection to help policyholders and their families in the event of an accident or illness."

Chairman Michael Eaddy added "that Aflac is passionate about helping people protect what's most important to them." As a leader in supplemental insurance, Aflac policies help cover what health insurance doesn't to help provide support when life's most unexpected moments happen so you can focus more on recovery.

Chairman Michael Eaddy shared these examples on how the relationship with Aflac will help support Church of God in Christ congregation:

- Aflac pays policyholders cash benefits to help with unexpected expenses from the doctor or at home.
- For more than 65 years, Aflac has focused on providing customers the best supplemental insurance experience possible. When a person gets sick or hurt, Aflac pays cash benefits fast.
- 50% of Americans report high levels of anxiety about health care costs exceeding what their insurance covers.¹ More than 57% of Americans say that they have less than $1,000 saved for emergency expenses.² Aflac is there to help when people need it most.
- Aflac offers a range of supplemental insurance policies for individuals and families through Aflac's custom Church of God in Christ direct to consumer e-commerce site. Members will find that their policies can help with everything from routine preventive care to critical illnesses.
