Our goal is to build a united front for nationwide companion animal legal protections.

By bringing together advocates, rescue groups, animal welfare organizations, shelters, pet-care professionals, dog-walkers, pet parents, and animal lovers, we aim to raise awareness, strengthen support, and build momentum for legal reform.

The scale of our animal welfare crisis.

According to the ASPCA, The Humane Society, ShelterAnimalsCount.org

We believe a meaningful federal recognition of companion animals —their significant value, relationships, and best interests— could help break a major barrier in animal welfare law.

This shift has the potential to strengthen protections for more humane treatment for all animals across the United States.

Let's all join forces
— advocate for substantial change —
at the heart of the issue.
