With 28 years of collegiate basketball coaching experience across NCAA Division I, II, and III levels, I bring a comprehensive and proven track record of leadership, program development, and competitive success. My career is highlighted by an NCAA Tournament run culminating in an Elite Eight appearance, along with signature victories over nationally recognized programs including UNLV, San Diego State, Texas State, Boise State and Benedict College. These accomplishments reflect my ability to prepare teams for high-level competition and execute winning strategies. Beyond the court, I bring experience in program operations, donor relations, and community engagement—understanding the importance of building a strong, sustainable program culture. I thrive in fast-paced, high-performance environments and am recognized for my strong communication, organization, and leadership abilities. My career reflects a deep commitment to excellence, adaptability, and the holistic development of student-athletes—qualities that position me to make an immediate and meaningful impact as your head women's basketball coach.
