

Media Press Release FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WNBA Stars Angel McCoughtry and Dana Evans Announced for Compete Con Fan Experience During All-Star Weekend in Chicago CHICAGO, IL — July 20, 2026 —

Compete Con today announced its highly anticipated fan experience event, scheduled to take place during the historic WNBA All-Star Weekend in Chicago. On Sunday, July 26, 2026, basketball enthusiasts and women's sports fans will gather at the Hiltons at McCormick Place from 12:00 PM to 6:00 PM for an immersive celebration of women's basketball featuring two of the game's brightest stars: two-time Olympic Gold Medalist Angel McCoughtry and standout WNBA champion guard Dana Evans. As basketball fans from across the globe descend upon Chicago, Compete Con offers an exclusive, up-close environment separate from the stadium rush. Attendees will have the unique opportunity to interact directly with the athletes, participate in dedicated autograph sessions, and capture their own media and selfies. "We wanted to build an environment that truly centers the fan experience," said the Compete Con Organizing Owner Andrea Williams. "Bringing together a legendary trailblazer like Angel McCoughtry and a dynamic local favorite like Dana Evans allows us to celebrate the past, present, and future of the WNBA right in the heart of Chicago." The event aligns with a weekend of unprecedented momentum for women's professional sports. Located just minutes from the weekend's primary basketball hubs, the Hiltons at McCormick Place will serve as the daytime destination for fans looking to connect with the culture of the sport around main events. Our event is designed to provide access to our lineup for our next generation of fans! Those under 18, AAU GBB players and families looking for an affordable interactive experience. Just added to our lineup is Crystal Bradford! She was the overall #7 pick in the WNBA 2015 draft! CB has played for Sparks, Dream and Aces. What an addition to our inaugural lineup! This is a great first ever group!
