THE STORY

In 1985, Remo Falconieri, an early pioneer of Classic Method Sparkling wine founded Cieck as a testament to the versatility of this region's heirloom varietal: Erbaluce. The winery was one of the original five producers in San Giorgio Canavese, and a number of other top estates in the area consult with Remo today. Now in his eighties, Remo labors daily in the cellar alongside his daughter, Lia, and Domenico Caretto, producing some of Alto Piemonte's most elegant Erbaluce.
