BELLIFOLLI WINES

In this mesmerizing island where chaos dances with beauty, where the sun showers affection on the sea, and where life itself is an invitation to celebrate, I stumbled upon inspiration. Sicily, with its vibrant flavors and breathtaking landscapes, sparked the idea of crafting wines that effortlessly fit beachside gatherings, lunches with a water view, and cozy dinner tables. And so, Bellifolli came to life—an embodiment of Sicilian living in every sip. These wines, fresh, aromatic, and unapologetically Sicilian, embody the joy and easy elegance of life. They're perfect for celebrating or simply taking a moment to soak in “la dolce vita”.

Tired of Merlot-like Nero d'Avolas which are as ubiquitous as cannoli left me in a funk. Surely an Island with incredible seafood, a bounty of incredible local produce (some famous), surely has another alternative for red wine that isn't so uninspired? A friend, unintentionally, gave me the answer when he handed off a re-used Evian bottle filled with a “quick drinking red, like my grandfather used to make”. I loved it. It was fresh, generous, and gluggable. What was it? To my shock: Nero d'Avola! Here was the style that had eluded me! And, so, Bellifolli Rosso is our take on that style. Infinitely drinkable, fresh, aromatic, and uninhibitedly Sicilian. Drink up! - AO
