Fundraising Cutoff

The fundraising cutoff for the All Star game will be Friday December 27th at 7:00pm. We will upload the All Star team shortly after and will post it on Instagram, Facebook and www.benscup.com Keep an eye out for posts throughout Saturday to show which team you'll be on. We will also keep this information at the Registration table once it's available

Where do I go?

Keep an eye out for posts on social media and www.benscup.com throughout Saturday to see which team you'll be on. We will also have this information at the Registration table once it's available. Please arrive at 4:45pm and head towards the Ardrossan Recreation Complex east dressing rooms. We will have a volunteer here in orange to let you know which dressing room to use Please don't worry if you are playing in the game before the All Star game. You won't miss out on the fun and we won't start without you!*

What should I expect?

You should expect a lot of fun with no pressure! We'll have your All Star swag for you when you arrive. This will include your new All Star Jersey, Socks, and Hoodie! We will have a pre-game ceremony on the ice and the closing ceremony post game. Will will also be taking a group photo with the All Stars, Ben's Cup Committee, Hunter and a donation cheque!

Pregame Ceremony

Before the game, you will hear from 16 year-old Peyton Walker, who received Proton Therapy in Jacksonville, Florida this summer. You will witness her bravery and strength as she talks about her story. You will also hear from the Stelter Family to talk about what Ben's Cup means to them.

National Anthem

Robert Clark from the Edmonton Oilers will be here to help make the game extra special by singing O'Canada!

Will Hunter actually be playing?

Yes! Hunter will definitely be playing in the All Star game too! You won't want to miss it!

Can anyone watch the game?

Yes! We encourage everyone to come out to cheer on the All Stars! If you're not playing in the game, please stay to cheer on your teammates and friends! Friends and Family are welcome and encouraged to come out! This game is going to be like nothing they've played in before! We recommend arriving early as there will be limited seating.

Who will be coaching?

There will be surprise guest coaches that you or your kids may recognize!
