

Directions: Mark off one block for every hour you spend outside between Memorial Day and Labor Day. ANY time spent outside counts! Ex. playing outside with friends, going to the pool, camping, visiting a playground, going creeking, visiting a zoo, having a picnic, taking a hike, going to a festival, watching the sunrise or sunset, participating in organized sports, making mud pies, jumping in puddles, walking a dog, looking for fossils, flying a kite, going canoeing, reading under a tree, riding a bike, playing hide-and-seek, building a fort, and pretty much anything else you can come up with. Be creative! As long as it's OUTSIDE, it counts!

Today is an adventure!
