You are welcome to join us at Good Shepherd
Lutheran Church

Dear Friends,

Happy Easter! It has now been a month since we resumed in-person worship. For those who have been vaccinated it has been an interesting time to be in church. Once again, I encourage you to get vaccinated for Covid-19 if you haven't already. You will strengthen your health, the health of those around you, including those here at church.

Today the Center for Disease Control said that for those of us who have been vaccinated it is ok now to take off our masks outside, although not in too large of groups. It is exciting to be entering this new way of life where some of the restrictions are being lifted.

I said it has been an interesting time to be in church. For me it is not just the wearing masks, not singing or praying out loud together, or the distanced seating that makes it different. It is also because not everyone is in a position to come back to church yet. Those of you who have not been fully vaccinated or have other health considerations are wise to wait.

Because not everyone is back we need more people to help out. During the pandemic both head ushers moved. We need ushers at both services. We need people to sign up to read the lessons. We need people to help out on Church Council. We need someone to help with the PowerPoint at our 9:00 worship.

One of the advantages of being a part of a church like Good Shepherd is you have the opportunity to make a difference. This has never been truer than it is now. Please let me know, or Council President Yvonne Smith, if you can help on Council. If you can help at worship, please do. Helping with worship is a great way to serve God and each other. There will be other needs as we gear up to fully reopen.

I look forward to ministry with you as we enter into this new way of being together!

*God's Peace,
Pastor Ted*

April Financial Report

Dear Good Shepherd Family,

This month we got in an annual giving donation, which helped with our monthly income. Our income this month was $32,355.90, which is higher than in the past. We only had two unplanned plumbing expenses. One was a broken faucet in one of the classrooms and an under the sink leak in a classroom. Both repairs came to $658.00. We also had two inspections. One was the fire hydrant inspection and the other was the fire marshal inspection that is required annually by BIA. Both these were significantly higher than in years past (total $369.00) as the City of Fresno has raised their fees. We repaired the pothole in front of the church at a cost of $1,100.00. We paid for this expense out of a special gift received at the end of 2020 to be used where needed. Overall, our expenses were on the lower side and we were actually in the black over $6000.00. Currently our income to expenses is negative $9235.93.

Yours in Christ,

Caroline Sullivan

2021 Advent Devotional Project

This past Christmas I re-discovered our 2005 Advent Devotional that was assembled for us by our dearly departed saint, Ruth Johnson. Reading through the daily devotions was such a blessing and I would like to create a new one for Advent 2021. I will need about 28 volunteers to write a small summary or assessment of the bible verse that I will assign to each person. It doesn't have to be exhaustive I would just like to hear how the verse speaks to you or how you will apply the verse to your life. I'm looking to include the youth as well as adults, any and all are welcome! Please contact me via email or cell if you are interested in participating or have questions. ## TREE REMOVAL

Two of the trees next to the back of Jacobson Hall were sending roots into the sewer system. To prevent any additional plumber expenses, they had to be removed. Francis Sullivan cut them down & Jimmy Sanborn cleaned up after him. Thank you to both!

GSLC BOOKCLUB

GSLC Book Group - Book for MAY

"American Dirt" by Jeanine Cummins

We plan to meet LIVE and IN-PERSON!! Read our book choice for May and join us at Dana Klein's Home for casual discussion.

Lydia Quixano Pérez lives in the Mexican city of Acapulco. She runs a bookstore. She has a son, Luca, the love of her life, and a wonderful husband who is a journalist. And while there are cracks beginning to show in Acapulco because of the drug cartels, her life is, by and large, fairly comfortable.

Even though she knows they'll never sell, Lydia stocks some of her all-time favorite books in her store. And then one day a man enters the shop to browse and comes up to the register with a few books he would like to buy—two of them her favorites. Javier is erudite. He is charming. And, unbeknownst to Lydia, he is the jefe of the newest drug cartel that has gruesomely taken over the city. When Lydia's husband's tell-all profile of Javier is published, none of their lives will ever be the same.

Forced to flee, Lydia and eight-year-old Luca soon find themselves miles and worlds away from their comfortable middle-class existence. Instantly transformed into migrants, Lydia and Luca ride la bestia—trains that make their way north toward the United States, which is the only place Javier's reach doesn't extend. As they join the countless people trying to reach el norte, Lydia soon sees that everyone is running from something. But what exactly are they running to?

American Dirt will leave readers utterly changed. It is a literary achievement filled with poignancy, drama, and humanity on every page. It is one of the most important books for our times.

Already being hailed as "a Grapes of Wrath for our times" and "a new American classic," Jeanine Cummins's American Dirt is a rare exploration into the inner hearts of people willing to sacrifice everything for a glimmer of hope. --from amazon.com

We will be meeting IN PERSON! (unless there is a increase in COVID before that time)

Sunday, May 16, 4:00 pm at Dana Klein's Home

LHN Free Neighborhood Market on 5/1/21 at Our Saviour's Lutheran Church, 9 -11am.

There will once again be a drive through food distribution of the Lutheran Hunger Network's FREE Neighborhood Market at Our Saviour's Lutheran Church located at 2101 N. Fruit Ave., on Saturday, 5/1/21, from 9-11 a.m.

Once again, this market will be very different from others. Recipients will be required to stay in their cars unless they are volunteering. Only people from the same household will be able to work together at a pallet bagging or packing food, and pallets will be stationed 6 feet apart. Volunteers will be needed to direct traffic and also to sign in recipients - from a safe distance -while those receiving food stay in their cars. Also, all of those people in the high risk categories please refrain from volunteering this time around. There will be other opportunities to serve! Please provide all the prayer support you have time for right now.

Central CA Food Bank will provide gloves, and you will need to bring your own mask. On 5/1, anyone planning to volunteer who is or has been feeling ill - especially if they have or have had a fever, cough or flu-like symptoms - is asked to PLEASE stay home. Volunteers will be encouraged to drive through and get food for their own household, too, just like usual.

Please share this information with everyone you know who could benefit and with those who might want to volunteer.

Questions can be directed to me

@ 13jdixon13@gmail.com or 559-287-3457. Please also pray that we get plenty of help from our friends and neighbors and that this food will bless all those who receive it. "

Thank you for your ongoing support of this ministry!

Julie W.

Shalom!

Owls ~ Don't Mess With Seniors!

An old lady went to a bank to withdraw some cash. She handed her bankcard to the cashier and said, "I would like to withdraw $10."

The cashier told her, "Mam! For less than $100 please use the ATM."

The old lady wanted to know the reason . . . "Why can't I just withdraw $10?" she asked.

The cashier got irritated . . . She returned the old lady her bank card and said, "These are the rules of the bank. Please step aside if there is no other matter. There is a line of customers behind you."

The old lady remained silent for a few seconds . . . then she returned her bank card to the cashier and said, "Please help me withdraw all the money I have." (Picture Courtesy of Diane Fake)

The cashier was astonished when she checked the bank account balance. She nodded her head, and told her "Mam, you have $1,000,000 in your account and the bank doesn't have that much currently. Can you please book an appointment and come back tomorrow?"

The old lady then asked how much she could withdraw immediately.

The cashier told her any amount up to $5,000.

"Well, please let me have $5,000 now," the old lady said.

The cashier then angrily went to the vault. She retrieved stacks of $20's and $10's. She spent the next 10 minutes counting out the $5,000.

"Is there anything else I can do for you today?" the cashier asked irritated.

The old lady put $10 in her purse and said . . . "Yes, I'd like to deposit $4,900 into my account."

The moral of this tale . . .

Don't mess with the older generation.

They spent a lifetime learning the skills to deal with people!

"Mommy, Can We Take Her Home?"

These are the words of 9-year-old Hazel Allinder, when she saw a homeless woman in the Madera City Park. "I want her to know what a house looks like" Hazel added.

Hazel's Mother, Sarah Allinder of Madera, thought a moment and answered, "We're not able to do that right now, but I have an Idea how we might help." So they went to Target, bought several back packs, and loaded them with crackers, granola bars, blankets, socks, water, tooth brushes and tooth paste, garbage bags and other non-perishable items.

Hazel and her father, Norm, returned to the Park, and the woman was there with her "adorable" dog, resting on top of the woman's cart. The dog jumped into Hazel's arms with a wagging tail. "I wanted to give this to you," Hazel said to the woman. The woman was most grateful and touched by the fact that someone so young would want to help her. "I felt happy and kind", said Hazel.

Hazel continues giving out back packs to others, always accompanied by an adult. She encourages other young people to do the same. "Those folks deserve a lot better", she said.

"Hazel has always had compassion when she sees homeless people", her mother added "and we are very strict to make certain an adult is with her".

Another time, when Hazel was with her Grandmother, Pam Gerster, she noticed a man sitting on a curb by the Post Office near Costco. "Can we give him some money, Grammy?", Hazel begged. "Let's give him something else that will make him smile", said her Grandmother. They went immediately to a nearby Mexican restaurant and purchased a gift card. "The man was very pleased", Hazel said.

Her advice to others is, "Don't be afraid of people who are homeless, just talk to them and be friendly. It will make you smile and make them feel happy. And it will make you feel happy, too.", Hazel added.

Hazel's mom Sarah said they couldn't stress enough the importance of having an adult always accompany the child. "I leave the conversation and the presentation to Hazel," she said, "but am always close by". "The life lesson is, compassion speaks for itself and her family is enormously proud of her."

Hazel is a 4th grade student at John Adams Elementary School in Madera. She and her family are members of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Fresno.
