You are welcome to join us at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church

Dear Friends,

Two weeks ago we celebrated Easter. What a wonderful day of worship and seeing each other again! It was great to welcome back those of you who have gotten out of the habit of regular worship. The church was full. The songs seemed to be sung with even more joy than usual. It was a real high point.

The following weekend the church was full again. This time it was on Saturday for Paul Werfelmann's musical memorial. As you could expect, a man as great as Paul gets a good size crowd to show up at his funeral. Have you ever wondered how many people will be at yours?

Anyway, for two weekends the church was full. It was exciting to have that much energy. On both weekends we welcomed back people who had been gone for awhile.

Then we celebrated the Sunday AFTER Easter. Maybe it was because we had such a huge memorial service the day before, but it was obvious there were a lot more open seats than just a day prior, and week prior. I guess this shouldn't surprise me as it is a pattern we have seen for years. It just seemed particularly true this year.

Whichever group you fall into, I'm so glad you worshipped with us when you did! If your worship pattern has dropped off, I encourage you to make worship a priority again. There is a lot of strength that we get from each other when we come together in community. If you were one of the ones in church the Sunday AFTER Easter, I just want to commend you for your faithfulness! You recognize that God's love is something to be celebrated everyday, not just on the holy days.

I hope this season of Easter brings you new life however you may need it. I also hope to see you at worship!
God's Peace,

April Financials

Dear Good Shepherd Family,

April giving was up from March. We were up slightly for Easter week. We did not have any major expenses for April. We had our yard person clear the weeds from the ponding basin area. They were dry and a fire hazard. The cost was $500.00. Next month we will apply pre-emergent to the area to, hopefully, keep the weeds down. All other expense were as expected for April. Prayers for no major expenses! It is nice to be positive.

Yours in Christ,
Caroline Sullivan

GSLC Book Club

GSLC BOOK CLUB - GOOD BOOKS AHEAD!!

MAY book club - "West With Giraffes" by Lynda Rutledge

An emotional, rousing novel inspired by the incredible true story of two giraffes who made headlines and won the hearts of Depression-era America.

It's 1938. The Great Depression lingers. Hitler is threatening Europe, and world-weary Americans long for wonder. They find it in two giraffes who miraculously survive a hurricane while crossing the Atlantic. What follows is a twelve-day road trip in a custom truck to deliver Southern California's first giraffes to the San Diego Zoo. Behind the wheel is the young Dust Bowl rowdy Woodrow. Inspired by true events, the tale weaves real-life figures with fictional ones, including the world's first female zoo director, a crusty old man with a past, a young female photographer with a secret, and assorted reprobates as spotty as the giraffes.

Part adventure, part historical saga, and part coming-of-age love story, West with Giraffes explores what it means to be changed by the grace of animals, the kindness of strangers, the passing of time, and a story told before it's too late.

Sunday, May 15 at 4:00 in the Community Center

We will announce the book list for 2022-2023 at our May discussion.
Be on hand to hear what wonderful books await!

WEDNESDAY EVENING BIBLE STUDY for Spring

"TruthFilled" - The Practice of Preaching to Yourself Through Every Season

by Ruth Chou Simons

"Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly." —Colossians 3:16a

Many of us want God's Word to dwell richly in us, but life can get in the way. We'd never intentionally write chapters of confusion, failure, loss, pain, conflict, or suffering into our stories. No one plans to wrestle with her identity in Christ, to struggle to love her husband, to feel lonely in ministry, or to feel helpless in motherhood. Yet we often find ourselves in these seasons, struggling to embrace the gospel hope we need to fill our discouraged souls.

Join Ruth Chou Simons as she leads us through a practice of preaching gospel truth to ourselves by studying Paul's example in the Book of Colossians. In TruthFilled, Ruth combines her signature artistry and practical encouragement to help us face the changing landscapes of our lives with hearts inspired by beauty and filled with God's Word. In every changing season of life, we can rest in God's character, rehearse our identity in Christ, respond in faith, and remember God's provision for us. In today's culture, there's no shortage of self help, easy fixes, and worldly advice, but only the truth of God's Word was meant to fill you up and satisfy you fully.

New

Notes of Gratitude

THANKS
HEART

Thanks from the Heart!!!

Many, many thanks to everyone who helped make Paul's memorial service and celebration of life so beautiful. It was so very lovely and gave me such comfort. In addition to our immediate and extended family, special thanks to the following who really went above and beyond in their contributions of both time and effort: Francis and Carol Sullivan, Paul Bolm, Pastor Ted, Susan Berg, Kathy Edison, Mary Fey Norris, Karol Fair, Dale Fair, Victor Rosales, Diane Fake and the entire Bereavement Committee, Dee Wright, Susan Linder, Liz Smith, and Justin Pipes. Huge thanks to those who brought us the amazing gift of their music: David Aus, Susan Berg, Paul Bolm, Alan Hofmann, Erik Johnson, Jimmy Sanborn, Mark Svetlik, Chris Walker, and Sean Walker.

Thank you also to the entire congregation for your love and support throughout Paul's illness and following his death. He loved hearing from you via calls, cards, emails, and texts. Thanks to all who have brought and sent us food and words of comfort and who have checked in on me over the past few weeks in particular. It is deeply appreciated. Thank you for the years of prayers. Paul was - and is - my beloved, and he brought me such joy and delight. Even though my faith is big, and I know he will never really leave me, I am deeply grieving the loss of his physical presence. So, thank you for being our friends. That helps. And whatever you do, in honor of my darling husband, don't forget to be somebody's biggest fan!

Love,
Julie - and forever Paul, too.

I'd like to thank Carol and Francis Sullivan for their helpful collaboration with making our services enjoyable for everyone. Blessings Always!

Thank you as well, Kathy!
