You are welcome to join us at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church

Dear Friends,

My parents are members of Lord of Life Lutheran Church in Surprise, AZ. Their pastor, Pastor Steve, shared the information below. It is about the importance of being together. This is from his article:

"Research shows that attending faith-based services four times per month will add 4-14 years of life expectancy. From a purely pragmatic point of view, that's reason enough to belong to a faith-based community. Increase your life expectancy by 10%? That's a big deal! Think of all the 'wonder drugs' that claim to help you live longer. And, of course, we don't just want to live longer, we want to live better. We want to be happy, health and whole.

How does belonging to a faith-based community help with that?

Well, let's think about what it means to belong. The Oxford English dictionary defines belong as being

1. In the right or suitable place and
2. comfortable and happy in a particular situation or with a particular group of people

When a person 'belongs', it doesn't mean that his/her situation is necessarily good. Life isn't a bowl of cherries. We experience ups and downs, good times and bad. Ecclesiastes says that there is a time for everything, a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance.

Who wants to laugh and dance alone? And who wants to weep and mourn alone? Life is better when we experience it together. We can be comfortable in any situation when we know that we are not alone; when we know that we belong to God and to a community of faith.

Our sense of belonging changes as we age. Living longer may mean that we outlive our spouse, siblings and friends, the people with whom we have the closest relationship. And then we may withdraw, spending more time at home, alone.

When that happens it's vital for the church to continue reaching-out to renew that sense of belonging. If you notice that someone is absent or alone, here are some things you can do:

- offer a ride to church, the store, or medical appointment
- invite the person to dinner
- call or visit regularly
- sit together during worship and happy hour
- alert the pastors if the person needs a visit, telephone minister or eucharistic minister

Marines have a saying that I have always like: 'we started together, we finish together.' In other words, we take care of each other and leave no one behind. We belong together.

That's a good motto for the church, as well. We belong to God and to a community of faith. We all want to live better, longer. Happy, healthy and whole. Together.

God's Peace,
Pastor Ted

July Financials

YOUR GIVING MATTERS!

Dear Good Shepherd Family,

Happy Summer everyone. Our year to date giving is ahead of budget by $9,349.00 which is good news considering summer is traditionally the low giving months, so our giving in July was below budget. The only major expense we had this month was the air conditioning repair and finishing the electrical repair. These came out of designated funds, so they do not appear in our expenses report and did not impact the budget adversely. In August we will have $6,561 that will have to come out of the budget. Two classroom air conditioners have gone out. They are on backorder and will not be in until mid to late August. Enjoy the rest of your summer and see you at VBS.

Yours in Christ,
Caroline Sullivan

VBS (This Changes Everything) 7/31, 8/7 & 8/14

For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God. —Ephesians 2:8

THIS truly changes EVERYTHING! God's generous gift of grace to each of us has the power to change everything in our individual lives and also everything in our life together as the Church. We will continue and expand upon this transforming theme we started last year. This VBS theme of change is particularly appropriate in our world that is still feeling the effects of Covid-19, not to mention the difficulties of war and drought.

We hope everyone will find the time to join together to be nourished and encouraged through God's Word to us. Pastor Ted is leading the adult class in the community center while various crafts and activities will be offered for children of all ages in Jacobson Hall.

Dinner will begin at 5:30 in Jacobson Hall and then classes divided by age will run from 6:30-7:30. Closing music and snacks will be from 7:30-8 in Jacobson, and the adults are invited to join the children once again for this time of fun and praise. Mark your calendars for 8/7 and 8/14. Please contact Julie @ 559-287-3457 or 13jdixon13@gmail.com if you have questions.

Come and let your heart - your whole identity - be changed by God's grace!
Bring your friends and family, too!

GET INVOLVED!!!

Dear friends,

How would you like to help contribute to our worship experience? Here are some brilliant opportunities to share your gifts and to grow in your faith and in your relationships with others by helping out in any or all of the following areas!

Lectors - people who read the lessons on Sunday morning.

Greeters - arrive early to welcome others to Sunday worship and handout bulletins.

Children's Church leaders - go to Jacobson or playground for special kids' time after the Gospel and through the prayers of the church. Brief discussion or activity around one of the lessons followed by some play and the Lord's Prayer before re-turning in time for communion. (You can still catch the sermon and prayers via Facebook later in the day!)

Altar Guild - come early to prepare the altar or stay late to put away communion items.

Videographers - record Sunday worship via Facebook Live for those who can't make it to worship.

Please prayerfully consider how you can make worship more welcoming, more joyous, and more meaningful - for yourself AND for everyone else, too - by contributing in some of the aforementioned ways. You can offer to substitute, pick a month, or pick a regular week of the month to share your gifts through any of these ministries. Please contact Gloria Miller, Suzie Gutierrez, Pastor Ted, or me if you have any questions or would like to join in the work of the church in this way. Thank you! Julie W.

Save the Date God's Work, Our Hands

➡ The Unsinkable Greta James ◀

Saturday, August 6 at 9:30 am – Community Center

Greta James's rise to indie stardom was hard-won. Before she graced magazine covers and played to sold out venues, she spent her girlhood practicing her guitar in the family garage, full of big dreams and determination. Her first fan was her mother, Helen, who always encouraged Greta to follow her heart. But her father, Conrad, was less supportive; he saw only a precarious road ahead for his daughter, and always pushed her to make more practical choices.

Greta has spent her life trying to prove him wrong. And she's succeeded beyond even her own wildest dreams. But a week after her mother's sudden death, and just before the launch of her high-stakes sophomore album, she completely falls apart on stage. The footage quickly goes viral, and she stops playing, her career suddenly in the exact kind of jeopardy her father always predicted.

Months later, Greta--still heartbroken and humiliated and trying to find a way back to her music--reluctantly agrees to accompany Conrad on the week-long Alaskan cruise her parents had booked to celebrate their fortieth anniversary. It could be their last chance to heal old wounds and forge a new relationship in the wake of such loss. But the trip will also prove to be a voyage of discovery for them both, as well as for Ben Wilder, a historian also struggling with a major upheaval in his life.

As Greta works to build back her confidence, and Ben confronts an uncertain future, they find themselves relying on each other to make sense of life's difficult, unexpected choices. In the end, Greta must face the biggest challenge of all: can she find a way to listen to the song within her while also making peace with those who love her? -- Powell's Books

Get ready to join us in September as we begin our monthly book club. We meet the third Sunday of most months at 4:00 in the Community Center. For our September 18 meeting, we will be reading Sue Monk Kidd's "The Book of Longings".

GSJC RALLY DAY 2022!!!

The Count Down has begun ...

WEDNESDAY EVENING BIBLE STUDY

Beginning Wednesday evening, September 21 at 6:30 we will begin our study on "Isaiah - Striving less and trusting God more." This is written by Melissa Spoelstra. We did a study by her in "Numbers - Learning contentment in a culture of more" in 2019.

"Isaiah wrote messages of both judgment and hope. Pastor H.B. Charles wrote, 'Real faith is ambidextrous. It can take blessings in one hand and trouble in the other, lifting both in the worship of the God who is worthy of our stubborn trust, complete obedience, and unceasing praise.' Throughout our study of Isaiah, we'll learn to be ambidextrous. Hopefully by the time we turn the last page, we will be able to lift both hands in worship. We won't be striving harder, but instead trusting more deeply the Faithful One who is so worthy of our utter dependence."

Salt & Light

Swim for Kids and Youth 8/21 11:30-1:30 Begins 9/18 from 11-1

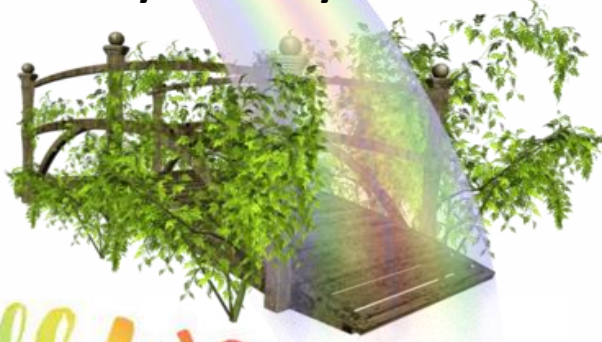

It's another pool party to kick off the school year! Kids and youth are invited to come over to Julie's house to swim again for a couple of hours. We'll set up the pool volleyball net once again and plan to have some splashy, wavy fun together. Lunch will be served and friends are welcome. Please RSVP to Julie @ 559-287-3457.

We are reimagining Sunday mornings for youth and children. Children's church will continue to be available during the sermon portion of worship, featuring some kid-focused ministry moments and an activity of some kind. After worship, youth and children can grab some snacks with friends and family in Jacobson Hall. By 11:15, it will be Salt & Light time, and all kids and youth are invited to head over to the community center and other parts of the campus for bible story time, lots of creative play, and faith conversations. Families will need to pick up their children at 1 pm.

The day you wagged into my life
we bonded from the start.
You brought happiness to all my years
and love into my heart.

There is no other like you -
you were beautifully unique.
And my heart breaks to not have you here
every minute of every week.

Even in your absence,
there is hope my friend.
On that rainbow bridge we'll meet to love and play again.

WHAT IS OUR CHRISTIAN VIEW?

My second husband, tried to enlist during the Vietnam War years. His eyesight was so poor he was not accepted. Later in life was a gun owner and an NRA member. He participated in black powder competitions where members would go through a scene mockup competing for time and accuracy. I once visited a gun range with him and fired a rifle at clay pigeons and a target. He was surprised at my accuracy--my vision was better than 20/20 in my younger days!

Fast forward to a year after his death in 1995. I was left with a collection of rifles, handguns and a gun safe. I subsequently sold most of the guns through one of the gun shops.

However one item was an assault rifle. He had owned it for just a couple of years. Assault rifles flooded the gun market after the Cold War ended. Russian and other countries wanted to raise money and sold them to any market

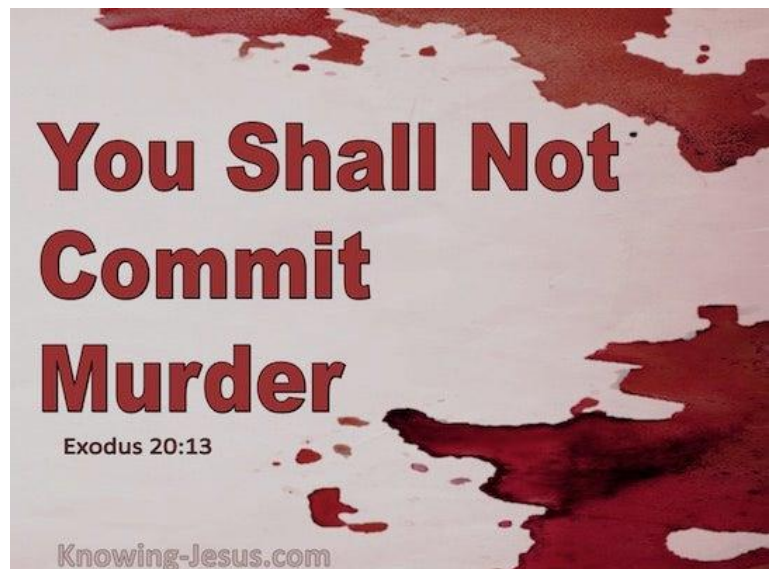

What to do with an assault rifle? Even before mass shootings I could not in good conscience keep OR sell it. I had learned from him how destructive they could be and how they differed from other guns. Not only did I not want to have it in the house, I didn't want to think that anyone else could ever use it against innocent people.

I called my brother who has a machine shop in southern California. "Can you get rid of this for me? Can you destroy it somehow with the equipment in your shop?" "Sure," he replied. "Bring it down. I can cut it apart so it can't be used." A few weeks later it was destroyed. There is no good reason to have such destructive tools all over the US.

This is MY Christian view "Thou shall not kill". Having a gun for protection is fine. Using a rifle to hunt, supplementing family food needs is useful. Using an item for mass destruction in peacetime is NOT FINE. Pastor Ted said one Sunday we are "to bear, share and care"; to bear each other's burdens, to share our basic needs with others in some way; to care for the lame and ill--not to kill.

This is my opinion and my testimony. I don't want to hear about another mass shooting. I am in despair--there's nothing left to say, nothing left to talk about. Let's not wait until there's nothing left.....

Submitted by DW 7/6/2022

Sometimes, we need a simple little anecdote to remind us what's really important. God is in the details.....

I hired a plumber to help me restore an old farmhouse, and after he had just finished a rough first day on the job: a flat tire made him lose an hour of work, his electric drill quit and his ancient one ton truck refused to start. While I drove him home, he sat in stony silence. On arriving, he invited me in to meet his family. As we walked toward the front door, he paused briefly at a small tree, touching the tips of the branches with both hands. When opening the door he underwent an amazing transformation.....His face was wreathed in smiles and he hugged his two small children and gave his wife a kiss. Afterward he walked me to the car. We passed the tree and my curiosity got the better of me. I asked him about what I had seen him do earlier. 'Oh, that's my trouble tree,' he replied 'I know I can't help having troubles on the job, but one thing's for sure, those troubles don't belong in the house with my wife and the children.. So I just hang them up on the tree every night when I come home and ask God to take care of them. Then in the morning I pick them up again.' 'Funny thing is,' he smiled, 'when I come out in the morning to pick 'em up, there aren't nearly as many as I remember hanging up the night before.

Hang your troubles up on your tree, folks, before you walk in your front door. I promise you, Heavenly Father has your back even when you think it's broken.

Shouldn't Have Done This!!! (Courtesy of Sandy T.)

I know I shouldn't have done this but I am 83 years-old and I was in the McDonald's drive-through this morning and the young lady behind me leaned on her horn and started mouthing something because I was taking too long to place my order.

So, when I got to the first window I paid for her order along with my own. The cashier must have told her what I'd done, because as we moved up she leaned out her window and waved to me and mouthed "Thank you.", obviously embarrassed that I repaid her rudeness with kindness. When I got to the second window, I showed them both receipts and took her food too.

Now she has to go back to the end of the queue and start all over again.
Don't blow your horn at old people, they have been around a long time.
