

Skye's Summer Scavenger Hunt

What wonderful differences will you find today...?

Can you find three or more different leaves or flowers? You could draw or describe them in the three boxes below.

Can you hear three or more different sounds? Can you name or describe each sound below?

Can you feel three different textures? You could draw or describe them below.

What other differences can you find today?

The differences I found today are great because...