This is HOME

Meet Hanna Yokozawa Farquharson!

Hanna moved from Japan in 2011 and now calls Saltcoats, Saskatchewan home!

She is a textile artist and her work was scheduled to be at the Community pARTners Gallery, but due to the pandemic, the gallery moved online at https://yorktonarts.ca/visual-arts. She will also have her first solo exhibition where her textile art will be on display at the Godfrey Dean Art Gallery from September 13 to October 31. The Gallery opens back up to the public on August 10th.

"The prairie landscape inspires me greatly. I find the prairie landscape has a simplicity, purity, depth to them and living in a small rural town gives me a warm feeling of belonging. Long cold winters force us to stay home more and that is a great chance to focus and reflect about ourselves deeply. That is the same process to make art. " - Hanna

EXPLORE our Community!

Yorkton has a number of parks that everyone is welcome to use! These parks include both active parks (to play at) or passive parks (to sit and relax at). There are play structures, spray parks, tennis courts, walking and hiking trails, picnic areas, disc golf courses and large green spaces spread throughout our city! If you would like to learn more you can visit the City of Yorkton website at https://www.yorkton.ca/dept/leisure/parks.asp or contact our office and we will get you a map and list of all the parks!

Yorkton also has a rich collection of art on display throughout the city and many historical landmarks. If you are interested in exploring the Art, Heritage and History of the City of Yorkton call our office at (306) 783-2777 and arrange for pick-up of the "Art Centre" and "Heritage & History" guides. These pamphlets highlight the art and history in our city for you to self explore!
