FUN FACT ABOUT CHRISTMAS IN CANADA

Did you know that in Canada, Santa Claus has his own postal code? Kids can write letters to Santa at the North Pole using the address: Santa Claus, North Pole, HOH OHO, Canada. Since 1982, Canada Post volunteers, known as "mailroom elves," have helped Santa respond to millions of letters from children all over the world.

FESTIVAL OF CULTURES 2024

Thank You to All Who Made the Festival of Cultures a Success !

As we reflect on the incredible success of this year's Festival of Cultures, we are filled with immense gratitude for everyone who contributed to making East Central Saskatchewan's longest-running multicultural celebration a truly memorable event.

To our dedicated staff and volunteers: Your tireless efforts behind the scenes ensured that every aspect of the festival ran smoothly. From setting up booths to coordinating performances, your hard work and enthusiasm were the backbone of this event.

To our talented participants: Your performances and presentations brought the festival to life. Thank you for your dedication and hard work!

To our generous vendors: Thank you for providing a delightful array of authentic dishes that allowed us to savor the flavors of the world. Your culinary contributions were a highlight of the festival, and we appreciate the effort you put into preparing and presenting such delicious and diverse foods.

To all attendees: Your presence and participation are what make the Festival of Cultures a cherished annual tradition. Thank you for coming out on such a snow-filled afternoon. The Festival of Cultures has grown significantly since its inception in 2011, and it is because of the collective efforts of everyone involved that we continue to thrive. We look forward to many more years of celebrating our rich cultural heritage together.
