

Dear Members,

Today, June 5, 2025, is a day for members of GVVGA to be proud of and celebrate!

In honor of our 90th year, County Executive Adam Bello has proclaimed this day June 5, 2025 to be a day to honor and celebrate GVVGA.

The full Proclamation can be seen on our website. Here are some of its key statements:

* Whereas, These visionary founders were not only united by the love of golf, but also by a commitment to promoting good fellowship, good sportsmanship, and good competition - values that remain central to the GVVGA's mission to this day.

* Whereas, Today, GVVGA includes among its members the daughters and granddaughters of its founding women, a powerful testament to the enduring strength, unity, and intergenerational spirit of the organization.

* Whereas, The lasting contributions of GVVGA helped shape the cultural and recreational fabric of Monroe County, inspiring women and girls to pursue their passions on and off the course.

* Now therefore, I, Adam J. Bello, Monroe County Executive, do hereby proclaim June 5, 2025 to be a day to honor and celebrate:

The Genesee Valley Women's Golf Association's 90th Anniversary, and commend GVVGA for its extraordinary legacy of leadership, achievement, and fellowship.

Sometimes Proclamations can be a little wordy, with all the Whereas, and thus the core of the message sometimes being lost among those words. In this Proclamation, however, each Whereas hits all cylinders in GVVGA's contribution to women's golf, promoting the sport of women's golf, the wonderful friendships and camaraderie, and the "joy of the game."

Thank you, County Executive Adam Bello, for this recognition. And thank you GVVGA Members for making this organization what it is today. Our founders certainly would have lifted a glass and said, Well Done!

It is my honor to serve as President of GVVGA,
Cindy Keller