PARENTS' STATEMENTS

STATEMENT OF FAITH

The training and schooling of children is essentially spiritual; in nature, whether it is mathematics, science, literature or any other academic endeavor. In order for the school to serve well as an extension of your home, it is important that the home and school share common spiritual, beliefs and goals. To assist us in discerning how we can best serve in this way, please tell us your beliefs by responding to the following questions.

If you were to stand before God today and He would ask you, “why should I allow you into heaven?” what would you say?

Father: (must be written personally by the father)

Mother: (must be written personally by the mother)

STATEMENTS IN REGARD TO RESPONSIBILITY FOR EDUCATION

Please describe what you believe covenant Christian schooling should be, and how you envision Mobley D'Elite Academy assisting you in providing Christian schooling for your child.

Given that a family has the financial resources for a stay-at-home parent, is it better to send children up to age 5 to preschool or to educate them at home? Please explain your answer.

In your thinking, what should a covenant school require of parents and what would your involvement be?

FAMILY CHARACTERISTICS

The following are intended to acquaint you with:

- The essential matters in the life of a covenant school.
- The kinds of topics we will discuss at the interview
- What we look for and evaluate when making decisions about applicants.

They are not only intended to help us learn more about you but also reveal to you significant characteristics of our school;. Please answer truthfully and candidly. Lengthy essays are not required.

SPIRITUAL. The home is to be the center of spiritual growth and instructions for the child.

Describe the family devotional activities you engage in to further develop your child spiritually, other than Sunday worship.

FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS. How does your child relate to the other members of your family? For instance, are there brothers or sisters, grandparents, stepparents at home? Please mention those relationships or circumstances that are important to help us understand your child.

DISCIPLINE. What are your expectations for your student's general behavior and how are deviations from this behavior handled at home? Describe your child's response to authority.

DECISION MAKING. Who makes the decisions in your family about issues such as behavior, dress, dating, movies, music, TV, etc.? Please give an example of a decision that was made concerning one of these areas.

LEARNING DISPOSITION. Describe your child's attitude toward learning, including both strengths and weaknesses.

INTENTIONS. Is it your intention to have your child graduate from Mobley D' Elite Academy Middle School? If not, please explain.

We verify that there is nothing on your driving record that would prohibit us from transporting children safely and legally during a class outing. Mother? _____ Father? _____.

Beliefs

Doctrinal Standards of this Covenant School

The following beliefs are foundational to the operation of Mobley D' Elite Academy and are espoused by all covenant family members as part of their commitment to the school.

Beliefs

1. We believe the Bible alone is God's infallible and authoritative Word to man. It is the only standard by which faith and practice are to be measured.
2. We believe in the inspiration and inerrancy of the 66 books making up the entire Holy Scriptures.
3. We believe God is a triune God – the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
4. We believe in the majesty and sovereignty of God.
5. We believe that God spoke and purposefully created the universe out of nothing.
6. We believe that God created men in His image. Through their relationship to Adam, all men are sinners by nature and do themselves practice sin. They are thus alienated from God, their neighbor and the world.
7. We believe that at the fall this image was broken, resulting in man's total depravity.
8. We believe in God's gracious plan of redemption, as described in The Old and New Testament.
9. We believe that Jesus Christ is the only Savior of sinners, the only way to the Father. He died as a substitute for sinners and was raised from the dead so that they might be reconciled to God.
10. We believe that eternal life is a free gift that is received through faith in Jesus alone. Eternal life is neither deserved by anyone, nor can it be earned by good deeds.
11. We believe that God applies the salvation earned by Jesus Christ to man through the Holy Spirit.
12. We believe that persons not under the covenant of God's saving grace are condemned to a literal place of eternal punishment and separation from God. God's Word reveals that there will be a final judgment of man the consequences of which lead either to heaven or hell.
13. We believe that the chief end of man is to glorify God and enjoy Him forever.
14. We believe children of believing parents are rightly called "covenant" children, thereby receiving special benefits from God exclusive of salvation.

15. We believe in the priority of the church and the necessity of local church membership by believers.
16. We believe that a representative form of government is the most Biblical and practical way to operate a covenant school.
17. We believe that God's Word clearly condemns homosexuality and abortion as sinful activities and are not considered alternate lifestyles or life choices that should be embraced or taught as acceptable behavior.
18. We believe that in doctrinal issues there must be unity in the essentials and love in the non-essentials.

As an applicant to Mobley D'Elite Academy, I personally am in full agreement with the school's doctrinal standards and will uphold them while enrolled. If at any time I determine that I can no longer personally hold to any of the doctrinal standards listed above, it will be my duty to immediately notify the Administration Team (AT). I understand that the AT may choose to either prohibit my family from re-enrolling at MDA or may dismiss my family should we already be enrolled.

DISCIPLINE POLICY

The word "discipline" means to make a disciple. This involves both the intrinsic and extrinsic aspects of teaching a child to live properly before God and in all spheres of life. A change in heart (intrinsic) is accomplished only by prayer; but structure, boundaries, and consequences help develop habits of discipline.

1. Unacceptable Attitudes and Behaviors:

Behaviors that lie outside the acceptable boundaries of Mobley D'Elite Academy include the following:

- a) Any action that interferes with the learning process of the child and his classmates. This includes any alteration of one's appearance in order to distract other students.
- b) Any action that would possibly cause physical or emotional harm to the child, his classmates, or his instructors. This would include bringing to school any weapon or any other object that could be used as such.
- c) Any action that is in direct violation of an established school rule or procedure (cheating, fighting, stealing, interrupting, disruption, or leaving campus.)
- d) Any action of willful disrespect toward his classmates, his teacher or any adult authority.
- e) A willful failure to complete assigned work in a reasonable amount of time.
- f) A use of language that is profane, blasphemous, or unduly crude.

2. Responsibility of the Parents:

As an extension of the home, school discipline should reinforce the rules and consequences of the parents as much as possible. Where possible, parents are part of the decision regarding proper consequences for unacceptable behavior. Parents commit to giving the schoolteacher authority to exercise discipline in their place. In a covenant school, parents must sometimes defer to the consequences given to their child (even if it is not what they might have chosen) in trust that the overall purpose of God's work is being accomplished.

3. Responsibility of the Teacher:

Individual teachers, for the most part, will handle discipline in accordance with school policy in their own way in harmony with their own methods and abilities. This could be any one of many different things, ranging from reprimand, in school detention, suspension. These could include, but are not limited to, cleaning up a room or writing an essay. We encourage the teachers to have the corrective measure fit the offense. More serious cases will be referred to the administration. An attitude of prayer for true repentance must under gird all actions.

4. Use Of Corporal Punishment:

The use of Corporal punishment is strictly prohibited at Mobley D'Elite Academy.

5. Unacceptable Behavior Outside of School:

Students whose behavior outside of school is unlawful or immoral, will be subject to disciplinary action by the school and subject to expulsion.

6. Behavioral Probation:

Students with continual instances of unacceptable behavior may be placed on a behavioral probation for a designated length of time to allow repentance and restitution. Violation of such probation will result in expulsion from the school. The details of such probation will be clearly communicated to both parents and the student.

I have read the discipline policy and I am in agreement.

PARENTS' CONTRACT

(Includes legal guardians)

Our signatures below indicate that we have read, do understand, and do agree with the Parent Contract. In making application to attend Mobley D'Elite Academy,

1. We do affirm our commitment to a biblical view of parenting which includes:
 - (a) Our ultimate responsibility to educate our children according to Deut. 6: 6,7.
 - (b) Our submission to the authority of Jesus Christ, the leadership of MDA, and civil authorities.
 - (c) Our regular practices of spiritual growth that include personal, family, and corporate devotion and worship.
2. We do affirm our commitment to the educational philosophy of Mobley D'Elite Academy which includes:
 - (a) Allowing the school to assist us in the individual education of our child.
 - (b) Submitting to the school-wide policies governing all students.
 - (c) Praying regularly for all the school staff, the faculty, and other school families.
3. We do affirm our commitment to parent and student punctual attendance requirements at school functions which include school-wide campus meetings, teacher conferences, class parent meetings, regular school days, and enrichment days (including field trips and service projects). Non-compliance may jeopardize re- enrollment.
4. We do affirm our commitment to teaching and chaperoning enrichment days and field trips as is required for our child's grade level and class.
5. We do affirm our commitment to a biblical model of communication which includes:
 - (a) Following requested channels of concerns by going first to the appropriate party (teacher, principal, etc.).
 - (b) Refraining from giving bad reports or gossiping about issues with others.
 - (c) Bringing constructive suggestions to the Administration Team in writing.
 - (d) Letting the administration know if the school's commitment to competent teaching, solid curriculum, regular feedback, proper supervision, cooperation with the home, and love and respect for your child is not being met.
6. We do affirm our commitment to giving the teachers and principals full discretion in disciplining our children which includes:
 - (a) Praise as well as constructive criticism
 - (b) Giving of detention, probation and suspension.
 - (c) Expulsion from school if behavior warrants such.
7. We do affirm our commitment to being responsible for assuring our child's compliance with school rules or withdrawing him, which includes the recognition that the school retains the final word on a student's discipline, suspension, probation, or expulsion.

8. We do affirm our commitment to accepting the breadth and scope of Mobley D'Elite Academy's program, realizing that the school cannot meet the educational needs of all covenant children. The school retains the right, after careful testing and examination, to deny admission or re-enrollment to any student whose needs are not best met by its program. This may include required tutoring or therapy in order for a student to be enrolled.
9. We affirm our commitment that once the parents' contract has been signed and the enrollment fee paid, we are, the Parent or Guardian responsible for paying the full tuition and fees for the academic year. Because the school's expenses are incurred on an annual basis, the school cannot release the parents from their financial obligation. Extenuating circumstances may be appealed in writing to the AT. Records will not be forwarded to another school until all financial obligations have been satisfied.
- Delinquent accounts will result in:
- (a) Late fees on all tuition and fee payments.
 - (b) Transcripts of student records withheld until payment is made.
 - (c) Eighth graders not participating in graduation until account is paid in full.
 - (d) Loss of enrollment priority for the following year.
 - (e) Removal from school if the account falls two or more months in arrears.

Moblely D'Elite Academy reserves the right to refuse any application, or dismiss any child at any time, for unacceptable work or conduct, or any other reason it deems necessary. Neither this application nor payment of fees is considered to be binding upon Mobley D'Elite Academy.

If legal action is required to collect tuition, the undersigned will be responsible to pay reasonable attorney fees.

We have both read the Parent Contract carefully and hereby agree to its terms: (Both parents' signatures are required)

PARENTS' NAME _____

This student is seeking admission to Mobley D'Elite Academy, a covenant Christian school. The school exists to provide a Christian, coeducational climate for learning. The inherent features of a Christian school require that all students be of a good character and be able to live agreeable with their peers. It is also essential that the environment and training provided by the school be an extension of and receive complete support from the students' family.

We would appreciate your observations about the parents as listed below. Please use a question mark where you have insufficient evidence on which to make a judgement. If you wish to discuss this information personally rather than complete this form, please check here _____, sign the form, and note your telephone number. The Administration Team will contact you.

This information will be regarded as confidential in accordance with the FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT of 1974, as amended. It will be used only for the purpose of making an admission decision.
