

reetings Everyone —

Today is Sunday, August 30. The 22st Sunday in ordinary time and the 13th Sunday after Pentecost. We are streaming our third online live virtual service on the internet beginning at 9:00 AM.

We hope you are enjoying the online experience as we continue to prepare in person services in the near future. The goal is that we can complete all necessary preparations and gain all of the required approvals in order to open before the end of September.

We appreciate your feedback and your patience as we grow our online presence. We get that the audio has been a little bit of a problem that we aim to improve upon this week. Additionally we are preparing to purchase new audio-visual equipment that will certainly enhance our stream and keep us available to everyone everywhere for years to come.

Please stay connected at the conclusion of this Sunday's service. Sawyer Theer Wainwright, the son of Fredrick II, and Danielle Wainwright will be baptized outside of the sanctuary immediately following. We will walk the camera out the door where the family will be gathered, so everyone can join in on this blessed event.

GOD LOVES YOU AND I LOVE YOU.

Rev. Leo Forsberg

Find the Blessing and Gift Within Everything

Barbara Hammell

Today lets, focus on how you can prevent the creation of fearful attachments. In any circumstance that seems to evoke pain, you can take the path of peace by asking yourself, What's the blessing or gift within this situation? Each event and relationship offers the opportunity to grow, learn, and heal:

- You grow by taking actions that your feel good about, such as telling the truth, setting firm boundaries, or seeing everything through loving eyes.
- You learn by seeing the pattern within recurring events that you've experienced. For instance, you may gain knowledge about how to be patient, compassionate, or strong during these situations.
- You heal through your willingness to forgive yourself, others, and the situation, which releases you from carrying around the corrosive energy of anger.

Be open to finding the blessing or gift within everything today. This is like gathering flowers for a beautiful bouquet.

Thought for Today

I find the gift within each relationship and see the blessing within every situation. Instead of judging myself or others,
I view everyone compassionately. As I understand the lessons within recurring events,
I break unhealthful patterns.

Techniques for Thinking

- ◇ Keep life simple
- ◇ Practice being satisfied.
- ◇ Practice cheerfulness.
- ◇ Beware of indecision.
- ◇ Live and let live.
- ◇ Learn to like people.
- ◇ Use adversity.
- ◇ Don't take yourself so seriously.
- ◇ Have a sense of humor.
- ◇ Learn to like people.
- ◇ Practice objectivity.
- ◇ Tolerate your own mistakes.
- ◇ Forgive yourself.

I REMAIN CONFIDENT OF THIS:
I WILL SEE THE GOODNESS
OF THE LORD
IN THE LAND OF THE LIVING.
WAIT FOR THE LORD;
BE STRONG AND TAKE HEART
AND WAIT FOR THE LORD.

PSALM 27:13-14

Leah Everson

Be Thou my Vision,
O Lord of my heart;

Naught be all else to me,
save that Thou art

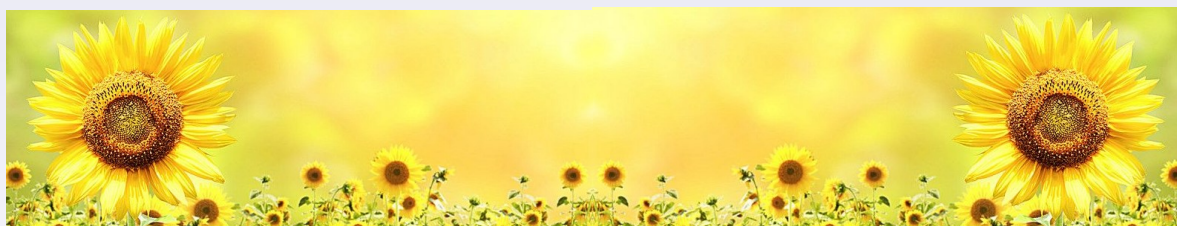

Blessings

Sawyer Theer Wainwright, the son of Fredrick II, and Danielle Wainwright will be baptized on Sunday, August 30th outside of the sanctuary immediately following the online service. Stay connected to witness for Sawyer. Pray for his good health and a happy life, and pray for pleasant weather during his baptism!

Bustleton's Best — Church Cookbook Recipe of the Week

While looking through the recipes this week, I came to the page with Bill's Chili. My family and I have been coming to our little church for slightly more than ten years. We have met so many wonderful people here, and Bill was one of them. I wish I could meet and get to know so many more of you. Bill is no longer with us, but his spirit lives on with everyone who has ever called Providence Presbyterian home. If anyone would like to memorialize someone here. Please send me a picture of them and let me know which recipe is theirs. God Bless & Thank you Bill!

Bill's Chili (crockpot)

Bill Ashmore

1 lb. ground beef	rinsed
1 lb sausage	1 (14 oz) can black beans, drained &
1 medium onion, diced	rinsed
1 bell pepper, diced	1 (14 oz) can kidney beans, drained &
2 C celery, chopped	rinsed
2 (28 oz) cans diced tomatoes	1 pkg. Chili seasoning mix
1 (28 oz) can whole, peeled tomatoes	Shredded cheddar, sour cream,
Pinch ground cumin	chopped scallions, for
1 (14 oz) can pinto beans, drained &	Garnish

In skillet brown beef & sausage, drain & set aside. Saute briefly the onion, pepper, celery until tender. To crockpot add browned meat, veggies, tomatoes, beans and seasoning. Cook on low for approx 4 hours. Serve with cheese, sour cream and green onions

DID YOU KNOW?

Providence Presbyterian Church of Bustleton was added to the United States National Register of Historic Places in 1988? You can view and read the original application as prepared by Roy Jones in January of 1986 here: https://npgallery.nps.gov/NRHP/GetAsset/NRHP/87000377_text Two excerpts from an included news article in the submitted application are shown to the right. Notice any familiar names in the bottom image?

The following is an article from the Burlington Gazette, Saturday, December 21, 1878 which recognized immediately the churches prominence:

Bustleton's New Church

"The village of Bustleton was all bustle last Tuesday, in consequence of the service attendant upon the dedication of the Providence Presbyterian Church. During the past ten days, as a subject of conversation, the weather has had a rest, in that vicinity, and wherever two or three were seen together, the coming dedication was certain to be the absorbing topic. The people of the village and the surrounding country are proud of their new church, and they have reason to be so. The existence of a church in a community speaks well for the inhabitants thereof.

In the construction of the building 93 loads of stone were hauled and used; 11 of brick; 4 of lime; 50 of lumber; 29 of sand; 29 hogsheads of water and a great quantity of gravel. This hauling was done by the following named gentleman, Hillman D. Warren deserving special mention for having hauled more loads than anyone else.

Edward Wainwright, Webster Hancock, Edward Quinn, Ellis Bunting, Ezera Scattergood, Edward King, John Lane, Andrew Tudor, George Bowne, Daniel Smith, Charles Smith, William Richardson, Joseph Haley, Frank Tallman, Benj. T. Warren, Bayard Carty, Wm. Bowne, Alfred Carty, Caleb Rogers, Jas. Bowne, Henry Gilbert, Dr. Calver, William Farrell, Thos. H. Sutton, David Styler, Samuel Hancock, Levi Frazier, Stacy Lippencott.

Offerings

We know that it has been a difficult time for a lot of us with what is going on in the world, but we need to remain positive and united and have faith in the Lord. He is always challenging us with difficulties but He is always there by our side to hear us and give us strength.

On that note, we would like to express our thanks and gratitude for your weekly or monthly church offerings. We need to keep our church alive and going. With your help and support during these times We Thank You!

Come by on Sunday & take advantage of the drive-thru offering!

Reminder - Save a Stamp!

Come to the Drive - Thru Offering from 8:30 am to 9:00 AM and 11:00 to 11:30 AM each Sunday morning.

We average 12 to 14 cars each week. Come join the parade and Say Hey to Jack! Also don't forget to Honk or Ring Your Bell on your way out!
