Greetings! Today is Sunday, June 13, 2021

The Third Sunday After Pentecost

Keep, O Lord, your household the Church in your steadfast faith and love, that through your grace we may proclaim your truth with boldness, and minister your justice with compassion; for the sake of our Savior Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Family That Prays Together Stays Together

Morgan - Crestview, FL - March 14, 2010

Praying and going to church has always been apart of my life. Straight out of the womb I was in the church. My mom would always say that "A family that prays together stays together." "So were going to start praying together." We would do this for a little while but then we would stop because of our busy lives and different schedules.

After we stopped praying as a family I started to realize that we would get really irritated with each other, talking to each other but not really listening to what the other person was trying to say. We just started to drift more and more apart. I remember I went a whole day without talking to one of my sisters, not because we were mad at each other but because of our different and busy schedules. And it's not a good thing for a family to drift apart because without them you won't have anyone to fall back on when times get to hard for you to handle alone.

So on one Sunday night, my dad was upstairs on the computer, my sisters were in their rooms, and I was in the kitchen (eating like always) ,when my mom called us all into the living room. When everybody got settled down my mom said, "The Lord just put it in my heart to have a family prayer tonight, it wont be long I promise" (my mom likes to talk so we all knew it was going to be long). So we talked and prayed and forty-five minutes later we were done. And after we were done praying together we didn't just go our separate ways, we all stayed in the living room and just enjoyed each others company.

That's when I realized that it's not just praying together that keeps a family intact, it's the talking and laughing, having fun and just being with each other that keeps us together as a family. And until this day I am a firm believer of a family that prays together stays together.

Bustleton's Best

“Holy Cannoli Batman! It’s time for dessert again.” “That’s right Boy Wonder. The true crime-fighter always carries everything he needs for just such an emergency in his utility belt. So, let’s break out these ingredients and whip up a bowl of Dana Marie Hass’s famous Cannoli Dip.” “I am a little hungry Batman.” “Of course Robin. Even crime-fighters must eat. And especially you. You’re a growing boy and you need your nutrition.” “How true Batman. What can be more nutritious than Cannoli Dip?” “Lot’s of things Robin, but that is not important now. The Editor says we have to dialog about dessert, and this is what I have the ingredients for. Besides Robin, Who doesn’t love this delicious Cannoli Dip?” “Right again Batman!”

Thank You Dana!

Cannoli Dip

Dana Marie Haas

8 oz. cream cheese
½ C butter
1 C powdered sugar

3 t brown sugar
2 t vanilla
1 C chocolate chips

Mix cream cheese and butter till smooth. Add powdered sugar, brown sugar, vanilla and chocolate chips. Mix all ingredients and then place in a bowl. Sprinkle chocolate chips on top. Serve with pretzels, graham crackers or whatever you would like.
