Welcome to the practice of Stefanie Von Ohlen, LCSW. This document contains important information about professional services and business policies in addition to information about your rights and responsibilities as a client. Please be sure to discuss any questions with Stefanie Von Ohlen, LCSW. Your signature at the bottom of this form indicates that you understand the information and freely consent to participate in services.

CONFIDENTIALITY: Therapy is most effective when a trusting relationship exists between the therapist and the client. Privacy is especially important in securing and maintaining that trust. All information disclosed within sessions and the written records pertaining to those sessions is confidential and may not be revealed to anyone without your written permission except where disclosure is required by law (see below). A “Release of Information” form must be completed and signed by the client giving Stefanie Von Ohlen, LCSW permission to discuss or provide information with specified others. HIPAA laws also provide protection. A copy of these laws is available on www.stefanievonohlen.com and in the office for your review. You may ask for clarification of these protections at any time.

WHEN DISCLOSURE IS REQUIRED OR MAY BE REQUIRED BY LAW: Some of the circumstances where disclosure is required by law are: where there is a reasonable suspicion of child, dependent, or elder abuse or neglect; where a client presents a danger to self or others; if the issue of psychological treatment is raised during the course of a lawsuit, Stefanie Von Ohlen, LCSW may be forced by the court to reveal the details of your treatment.

THE PROCESS OF THERAPY/EVALUATION AND SCOPE OF PRACTICE: Participation in therapy can result in several benefits to you, including improved interpersonal relationships and resolution of the specific concerns that led you to seek therapy. Working toward these benefits, however, requires effort on your part. Psychotherapy requires active involvement, honesty, and openness in order to change thoughts, feelings, and/or behavior. Clients who are devoted to attending sessions, challenging maladaptive patterns, and applying new skills experience the most benefit from treatment. Stefanie Von Ohlen, LCSW provides neither custody evaluation recommendations nor medication or prescription recommendations nor legal advice, as these activities do not fall within her scope of practice. Together, we will determine a treatment plan based on your stated goal.

POTENTIAL BENEFITS AND RISKS OF PSYCHOTHERAPY: The goal of therapy is to reduce difficulties and strengthen coping strategies. In most cases, therapy improves one’s sense of well-being and his/her relationships; however, in some situations little or no benefit may be obtained from individual therapy, or an individual may become worse in which case a different form of treatment is needed. Other treatment modalities such as family therapy, group therapy, and/or medication may be helpful and will be discussed with you if the need arises. Whether or not you choose to utilize any of these interventions is determined by you. If you have any questions about Stefanie Von Ohlen, LCSW’s procedures please discuss them with her when they arise. You may question or refuse any suggested therapeutic or diagnostic procedure or methods at any time. If an agreement on treatment methods is unable to be reached, a referral can be given or therapy can be discontinued.
