

In Massachusetts, a notary public is a public servant appointed by the Governor who serves as an impartial witness to the signing of important documents, verifying identities, administering oaths, and confirming that parties understand the documents before signing.

