Amends Constitution: Certain transportation fees/tolls require state, county voter approval unless financing “net new capacity”; retroactive

Result of “Yes” Vote: “Yes” vote amends constitution. Certain transportation fees/tolls require approval of both state voters and county voters, unless financing “net new capacity” (defined).
Effective 2018.

Result of “No” Vote: “No” vote retains current law. Transportation fees and tolls can be established by cities, counties, Metro, the Oregon Transportation Commission, the Legislative Assembly, or voters.

Summary: Amends Constitution. Currently, transportation fees or tolls may be established by cities, counties, Metro, the Oregon Transportation Commission, the Legislative Assembly, or voters. Measure prohibits imposition of transportation fees or tolls on personal or recreational vehicles, or commercial trucks, except for fees or tolls:

- approved by a majority of state voters and voters in each county where the fee/toll applies,
- used to finance “net new capacity,”
- which were effective prior to January 1, 2018, or
- which apply to marine uses or a rail system.

“Net new capacity” is defined as “expansion of transportation infrastructure which did not exist prior to January 1, 2018, and which has not been converted from a previous form of transportation infrastructure” already built and/or operated with public moneys.
