Where in Your Life do You Have Complete Peace of Mind?

“I find complete peace of mind when I follow my passion, i.e., writing, reading books, painting, and sketching. I also give my cent-percent effort to keep away from negative thoughts as much as possible by following Philosophy & doing exercise in the early morning.”

How and When Can You Peacefully Coexist with Uncertainty?

“This particular question reminded me of the day when I faced such circumstances which I’d never imagined. Once, my mother was diagnosed with breast cancer, then after a few months, my father passed away suddenly. It was totally uncertain. I never imagined that...”

“... the flames of the fire were rising. She became afraid, yelled & started to call our neighbors & everyone came quickly with water buckets & pipes, finally turned off the flames. This all happened just 2 days before HOLIKA DAHAN.”

What Prevents You From Being in The Moment, More Than Anything Else?

“Having a melancholy, reserved & shy nature prevents me from being in the moment more than anything else. Most of the time, I usually hesitate to speak up amongst the audience. But yes, I also try to overcome this weakness & become strong more than ever.”

What Questions or Doubts Are Currently Unresolved in Your Heart?

“Many doubts are hampering my growth & many questions are still in my heart. Like:

Why do we all suffer some setbacks/disappointment?

What is the mystery behind death?

What happens after death?

When will I be able to earn my source of income from my passion?

Is it really true that Money=happiness?”

What is Your Effect on Those Around You?

“Each & every people whomsoever I’ve encountered for the last 2-5 years, their struggle, their madness towards their passion & conquering the challenges inspired me a lot.”
