Living Virtuously

Where in Your Life do You Have Complete Peace of Mind?

“Usually, I am an open book person when around people, but I find peace of mind when I am alone, provided I make sure the people I want, or I love are safe in my sight or in my reach.”

How and When Can You Peacefully Coexist with Uncertainty?

“How:- Stop keeping expectations.

When:- I usually deal with uncertainty by understanding that I will have to wait for the time and when I give things time it will automatically happen, under my control, and thus I remain silent till then.”

What is The Earliest Memory That You Can Remember of Your Childhood?

“Earliest memory I have is my mom teaching me not to take anything from any unknown people and my dad restricting me not to go out of the house to strangers and mingle with the unknown crowd.”

What Prevents You From Being in The Moment, More Than Anything Else?

*“It’s the inner myself restricting me, saying ‘Careful man! a slight wrong move will spoil
the reputation you have, and you will also lose the people you love.’”*

What do You Usually Think About Whenever You're Alone?

“I usually think about the unsolved situations and try to find the solution for them or just try to enjoy the alone time with myself dreaming what if I had huge money, name, fame, etc.”

What Questions or Doubts Are Currently Unresolved in Your Heart?

“I always think why people say, ‘live for yourself and not for others and enjoy the moment and think about the consequences later’, where the truth is I find everyone and everything in this society interrelated and dependent on each other, just like the ecosystem in the world.”

What is Your Effect on Those Around You?

“Tough one to answer but my effect is completely motivational. I try to bring happiness around, which makes them feel I made their day right or it was a wonderful time spent, at least for some of them.”
