This episode of INSPIRATIONAL features a “True Story” from the life of Ms. Anastasiia Limborska (Head of IT Recruitment at QA Madness)

“ When I think about things that inspire me, I realize that mostly I take my inspiration from my communication with other people. A great pleasure for me to fulfil my inner needs is to have a job position as I have in my current company. COVID- 19 affects the whole world and there were some difficulties in the job market. Nobody had a vision of the future prospects and we were uncertain about the situation. Many specialists were benched and all of us were worrying every day. The only way out was to communicate with others, to share worries and expectations. I consider that only helping others to find a job and fulfil professional potential inspires me every day. When you make an offer and see people happy and smiling you are full of positive energy to go further and continue your mission. I suppose people have to find an individual inspirational light to move forward and develop skills! ”

INSPIRATIONAL isn't it?
