Living Virtuously presents 'Digging Deep'

Where in Your Life do You Have Complete Peace of Mind?

“Home! Spending time with my family, be it wherever in the world, is surreal. The moments with them are closest to feeling like heaven, cherishing the time with my loved ones, especially my Grandparents.

Being a stronghold through thick and thin, their presence in all of my milestones has gratified me.”

How and When Can You Peacefully Coexist with Uncertainty?

“When I have given it my all, like in terms of working to my fullest abilities, irrespective of the outcome (as I know it’s up to destiny or luck). I believe in the philosophy of ‘If there is 1% chance, try 100 times till you succeed.’ So, I will be the hardest working person in room. If I don’t get it even...”

How and When Can You Peacefully Coexist with Uncertainty(Contd...)?

“... after working hard then it’s fine, I will have no regret. So, if I have worked hard, I honestly don’t think about outcome, whether if it’s a success or failure. That is the time when I peacefully coexist with uncertainty because I know I gave it my all and I will not have any regret because at least I tried.”

What is The Earliest Memory That You Can Remember of Your Childhood?

*“The Time spent with my siblings back when we were toddlers.
Just being outside in the sun and playing and falling... still getting excited to play again in my old home... very vivid.”*

What Prevents You From Being in The Moment, More Than Anything Else?

“I am super-focused and ambitious when it comes to achieving my goals, which makes me wired in the ventures that I pursue, which can be an excellent thing to a certain extent. For me, I tend to get lost and whimsical in my thoughts, which isn’t the best thing if you are spending time with your family and friends.”

What do You Usually Think About Whenever You're Alone?

“I had a Ph.D. in Overthinking, literally. In hindsight though, I decided to gravitate that energy into how I become a better version of myself. As I grow, I am learning that life is too short to hold grudges, so I have none as I cherish the blessing and embrace it.”

What Questions or Doubts Are Currently Unresolved in Your Heart?

“The main ones are “Does Aliens exist, and if they do, will they have the same math? (like Pun Intended)” Personally, there are a lot of unresolved “What ifs,” especially concerning my loved ones; There were a lot of dilemmas I faced during my past where I was literally at crossroads. Retrospectively I think about it quite often. A time machine or a multiverse universe that will help :)”

What is Your Effect On Those Around You?

“I am a simple girl who wants everyone around me to be happy. Seeing others happy somehow is directly correlated to my happiness. When it’s time for me to turn up as a friend, I will always be there for them; I rather....”

What is Your Effect On Those Around You(Contd...)?

“... discuss ideas or something productive instead discussing people or gossip, so the effect is hopefully positive, gaining insights from my experiences. I love sharing my learning and also am curious about learning new things from others too.”
