Detailed facts upon which the grievance is based, including but not limited to, the event, the date of the event, and the aggrieved person or persons that occurred within the last 120 days:

Divisive Rhetoric –

Cathi Chamberlain has repeatedly referred to fellow Republicans as 'RINOs,' including during public events, stating: "We don't just have RINOs in Washington, D.C. We have them in our own backyard, right here in Florida." Such language fosters division and undermines party unity.

Copy of Reference the specific sections of the RPOF Constitution, RPOF Rules, or RPOF County Model Constitution alleged to have been violated:

County Model Constitution Article 2B

ARTICLE II: OBJECTIVES General purposes of this organization as a “political party” are to achieve the following objectives and aims:

- (a) Election to office of qualified Republican persons.
- (b) Foster loyalty to the Republican Party.
- (c) Promote an informed electorate through political education.
- (d) Increase Republican Registration.
- (e) Seek qualified Republicans to become candidates for local, county, state and federal offices.
- (f) Promote the election of all Republican candidates in the General Election.
- (g) In general, to uphold the principles of freedom, equality and justice on which the Republican Party and the government of this nation is founded, as set forth in the Constitution of the United States and the state of Florida.
