

This Week at FPC

Friday Bible Study Resumes

Friday, September 25, we will be starting a study of the Book of Romans. The Friday Noon group meets in the fellowship area Fridays from noon to 1.

Everybody is invited. I am preparing a mailing list for the Romans group.

Previous attendees should have already received a note. If you plan to attend, please contact John Coefield or call the church office. Romans has been described by many as the single most consequential book in the development of the church as we know it. I am looking forward to our study of this material.

Pow Wow Friday at the Fairgrounds

The Congregational Life Committee invites you to attend the 27th Annual Last Chance Community Pow Wow Friday, Sept. 25, at 6 p.m., at the Fairgrounds. Admission is free. The Pow Wow features food, crafts, Native American music and dancing. The theme this year is "Honor the Children." The Pow Wow is not an FPC event, but members are encouraged to attend for an educational and fun time – and Indian Tacos, too! Visit with John Bryan or Patti Borsberry for details.

Milk Campaign Continues

FPC has joined with other local churches to raise money to provide milk for the Helena Food Share Kid Packs. The packs are distributed throughout the school year to students in need, providing food for the weekends.

The Hunger Team is hoping to order enough milk for at least 41,000 kid packs for the 26/27 school year. We will collect donations through September 27. Questions? Contact Carol Gneckow.
