

Helping families

FPC to provide meals, overnight hosting for Family Promise clients Nov. 24-25

FPC will take a turn hosting Family Promise clients on Sunday, Nov. 24, and Monday, Nov. 25.

Hosting means we provide the evening meals and serve as overnight hosts for the families on Sunday and Monday at First Christian Church.

Family Promise prevents and ends homelessness for families with children and helps them achieve sustainable independence through a community-based response. In 2023, Family Promise of Greater Helena served 205 families with 501 children.

To support this program, please check the signup sheet in the fellowship area to see where help is needed.

Questions? Visit with volunteer coordinator Larry Mirch (phone numbers available on signup sheet) or visit the Family Promise website at familypromisehelena.org

MJP curriculum boxes assembly Nov. 25

Come help assemble curriculum boxes with the Montana Jewish Project (MJP) on Monday, Nov. 25, at 11 a.m.

This is light-duty work and will be a lot of fun bagging candy, bubble wrapping items and putting labels on the boxes. No heavy lifting or anything strenuous.

For details, check with Karen Witte.

Note from our Treasurer

The Treasurer has received many of your pledge cards for 2025 and is looking to finalize the Budget by the end of November to be voted on by session.

If you are considering turning in a 2025 Pledge, please turn it into the office or place it in the Sunday offering plate. Thank-you!

Happy Birthday!

to a

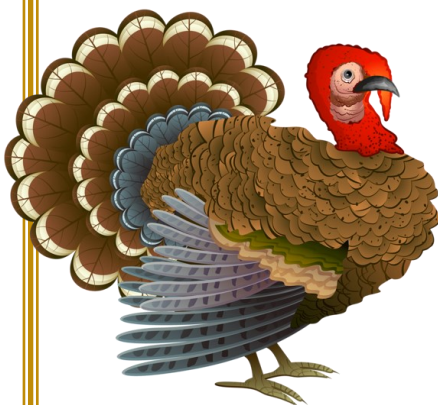

Helena-wide Thanksgiving Dinner

First Presbyterian Church -- 535 Ewing Street
Upstairs in the dining room

Thursday, November 28th
between 1:00 and 3:00 p.m.
(or when the food runs out!)

Turkey, ham, potatoes, pie and much more -- prepared or donated by members of Helena's Presbyterian Church,
as a Thanksgiving gift to the people of Helena.

If you're alone for the holiday or have no family around to celebrate with, stop in for the delicious food and fellowship.

Bring a friend or two.

And, best of all, there is NO CHARGE!

We hope to see you here!
