Pastor Karen M. Jones Edney born and raised in Philadelphia Father late Alfred E. Jones and mother Doris E, Jones. She attended the local area public schools. She relocated to Washington to pursue an education in Nursing and graduated, she then found family interest in electronics and graduated as a certified AC Tech. After returning to Philadelphia from Washington DC she met William S. Edney Sr. in 1985 and they married in 1991. Karen decided to go back to college, she graduated from DeVry University with an Associate in Science degree in Health Information Management. Baptized as a child and raised in the Church, Karen always knew she had a calling on her life to serve the Lord.

Sometime in 1991 Karen had a visitation from the Lord to leave the Islamic faith and rededicate her commitment to Christ and find a local Church home. In 1999 Karen joined Fellowship Tabernacle Church under the late Bishop Robert Taylor. There she served as an Usher. In 2003 she was diagnosed with Breast Cancer by 2004 she relocated to North Carolina, and Karen stayed in Philadelphia with the remaining congregation and continued with the ministry under a new Leadership Bishop Kevin L. Morrison and Evangelist Aziza S. Morrison of Lighthouse Deliverance Temple Ministry/City of Judah. Karen served as the Usher Treasure. During this time she met her mentor Pastor Debra Reilly who encouraged her to join her ETA class. Karen completed her ETA studies at Lighthouse Deliverance Temple Ministry. She then moved onto attending Living Faith Christian Center in NJ under Pastor Constance McLean and served on the Harvest/Support Evangelist Ministry team, and there she continued ministerial classes at Living Faith Christian Center Bible Institute. Karen then relocated and began attending Bethel Bible Deliverance Church Bible Institute, there she studied under the Dean Brother C. McCoy; and served as an Alter Care Evangelist under Bishop Lambert. She then went under Ministerial training at Open Door Baptist Church in Philadelphia under Pastor Jeremiah Norris and First Lady Norris, where she served as a Minister of the Gospel. She was responsible for the Church Website, Street Evangelism and Substitute Sunday School Teacher along with facilitating and the Preached Word.

Karen is a member of Pennsylvania Federation of Bible Classes which is a part of over four hundred Bishops and Pastors which make up the membership body of The Philadelphia Council of Clergy Inc., Bishop Anthony Floyd, along with the General Overseer.

On June 9 2013, she received her Certificate of Ordination and License to preach the gospel covered by the Majestic Temple Baptist Church as Reverend.

On May 15, 2016, Karen was then installed and Ordained as Operation Pastor for Greater Restoration Worship Cathedral by the authority and order of Divine Connections Churches and Ministries of Church, Apostle Gina Sutton-Hyde, Presiding Prelate, and Bishop Dionne Butts, 1st Assistant.

As Karen continued to serve the Lord, she watched her mother and aunt Survive Cancer. This is was also empowers her, even the death of her sister which transitioned her to birth” Abigail Women of Grace Outreach Ministry.” Karen’s calling was given to her by the guide of the Holy Spirit for the Lord, her sisters and other women, and families.

Karen has spoken at many events in support of Women with Breast Cancer. Her continued goal is to the Great Commission and growing Abigail Woman of Grace Outreach Ministry to be a safe foundational support system for all woman and children who have or had Cancer. The ministry provides face to face restoration, assistance, products and outreach for Cancer patients to prepare them for their new life.

Some of her community outreach accomplishments are:

AWGOM BIRTH 2016, Pink Eagle Women Soar Gathering and Honoree 2016 and 2018 a yearly gathering. Care For Outreach Day 2018 and 2019, “If the Shoe Fits, Wear It 2019. “Commissioned to Share Your Message Podcast and Streamer”

In 2019 Karen was honored with the Serving Women of God Award Proverbs 31 Women at the SURVIVED Brunch 2019. As of 2019, Karen served as the Operation Pastor of Greater Restoration Worship Cathedral under the Episcopal leadership of Bishop Dionne Cosby-Butts and Pastor Darryl Butts. While under the pastoral covering Karen has accomplished great works for the ministry. As of July 2020 Abigail Women of Grace Outreach Ministry is now a Para Ministry united with GRWC Church and Alliance. Karen is also a active member of Calvary Baptist Church and Seminary in Dover, DE, under Bishop W. James Thomas, II, B.S., M.Div., D. Min., D.D

In 2021 Karen was diagnosed with Breast Cancer again and without hesitation she continues to press with God on her side.
