

PRESIDENT'S TRAVELS

1) RI President Gary C.K. Huang (center) and his wife, Corinna Yao (right), visit a school in Berlin. 2) While in Germany, Huang attended a Rotary Foundation seminar, the opening ceremony of the Rotary institute in Berlin, and a “Late Oktoberfest” event. 3) Students at the Berlin school enjoy a cooking class led by Huang. 4) Huang also taught children his signature “happy clap” and Chinese greetings.

5) The Rotary E-Club of District 5810, Texas, inducted a new member, Paul Alexander, a practicing lawyer who was diagnosed with polio at age six and uses an iron lung to help him breathe. Huang exchanged a few words with Alexander and attended the induction via video chat. 6) Rotary Youth Exchange students take a selfie with Huang in Copenhagen. 7) Members of the Rotary Club of Aarhus International, Denmark, celebrate their charter night with Huang. 8) Jan Lundorff Rasmussen, president of the Rotary Club of København; Yao; and Huang visit in Denmark. 9) Rasmussen and RI Director Per Høyen present a $100,000 check on behalf of the København club, benefiting End Polio Now. 10) At a Rotary Day event, Huang meets with the prime minister of Malaysia, Najib Razak. 11) Huang and Yao visited Rotary members in Kuala Lumpur. 12) Huang and Yao visit a remote village in Morocco. 13) Rotary clubs helped build pumps to provide clean water to villagers. 14) Masidi Manjun (second from right), minister of tourism, culture, and environment for the state of Sabah, Malaysia, accepts Huang's invitation to join Rotary during a welcome dinner. 15) Italy's minister of health, Beatrice Lorenzin, accepts Huang's invitation to join Rotary.

