Embark on a journey to Self-Love, and Self-Discovery of your own divinity to give birth to the Goddess within you.

I have created a holistic program Somatic movements, and Healing Workshops that will allow you release repressed emotions, and stagnant energies in the body. Experiences that will open you up to feel liberated and safe to unleash your true power and be a magnet to the life you desire!

If you are ready for transformation, to step out of your comfort zone, and start overcoming your limiting beliefs surrounded by women who desire connection, healing and freedom ... then this retreat is for you!

This retreat is very special to me, I will be sharing with you my healing tool box. This is a gift from my heart to yours.

I Love You Goddess!

Imagine waking up in the Caribbean island of Dominican Republic, nestled on top of a small hill with 360 panoramic views of endless ocean and tropical nature, the joyful birds singing and celebrating a new sunrise, and you take your first morning breath, Inhale...Exhale Ahhhh! Mother Earth's scent. Welcome to Paradise!

Yoga Life Villa is a sanctuary for personal transformation located in Las Terrenas, Samana peninsula. A Caribbean gem surrounded by miles of untouched beaches and lush mountain landscapes.

Flow your body in their stunning natural rock and wood Yoga/Aerial studio with the breathtaking views while feeling the ocean breeze. A safe space to hold our practices, workshops and healing journey.

Stay in luxury suites all named after powerful Hindu deities, ready to welcome you to embody their energy.
