

Bible Study Worksheet

Testament:

Genre:

Author:

Audience:

Date:

Location (of Author):

(Audience):

Communication Situation:

(of the book/letter) - Why was this written? What is going on?

(of the specific passage) - Why was this part of the book written? How does it fit within the communication situation above?

Passage:

Key Words:

Cross References:

Themes:

What is the main point for the original audience? (Remember our 3 questions)

How does the passage begin and end?

Who are the characters and what is the focus?

How does this fit within the "bigger story"?

Main point:

Applications:

In light of what this passage meant to the original audience, what should I:

Think: (Is there some truth to believe, new way to view things, or some command addressing the mind?)

Feel: (Does this passage have implications related to my emotions? How should my heart respond?)

Do: (Is there a command to follow, an action to be taken, or a change to the way I'm currently living?)