

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Rising Light Relief Announces Organizational Indemnification Policy

Bakersville, NC — Rising Light Relief is committed to serving the community with integrity and transparency while providing disaster relief services. As part of this commitment, Rising Light Relief is indemnified from all liability except in cases of gross negligence. This policy applies to all operations, including those involving volunteers, staff, donors, recipients of donations, and any accidents occurring on or off property while conducting activities related to Rising Light Relief's mission.

Rising Light Relief and its partners, sponsors, and affiliates assume no liability for the actions of good Samaritans, or any individuals involved in the organization's efforts. This includes, but is not limited to, the distribution of food or goods to the community. All services and items provided by Rising Light Relief are offered in good faith and without warranties of any kind.

By participating in any capacity with Rising Light Relief's operations—whether as a volunteer, staff member, donor, or recipient—individuals agree to release the organization, its affiliates, and sponsors from any claims, damages, or liabilities arising from such involvement, except in cases of gross negligence.

This indemnification policy ensures that Rising Light Relief can focus its efforts on providing critical disaster relief services to Bakersville, NC, and surrounding areas without unnecessary legal exposure, while maintaining the highest standards of care and compliance.
