It was so quiet; I could hear the clock ticking in the hallway. I peeked out from behind the banister, holding my breath so I wouldn't make a sound. There he was—Santa Claus, in my living room! He was big and jolly, just like in the pictures, with his red suit and shiny black boots. His beard was so fluffy, it looked like a cloud, and it sparkled a little in the Christmas lights.

He reached into his big sack and pulled out a present, placing it carefully under the tree. His hands moved so gently, like he was making sure everything was just right. I saw him glance over at the cookies and milk we left, and he smiled—a real, Santa smile! He took a bite of a cookie and whispered something, maybe to himself or maybe to the reindeer waiting outside.

I wanted to giggle, but I covered my mouth so he wouldn't hear me. It was the most magical moment ever, like a Christmas dream come true. Then, with a quiet "Ho Ho Ho," he turned toward the chimney, and poof—he was gone!

Christmas Morning: 'kids Caught Santa Sleeping' between 6:00 & 9:00AM

$700.00 per Super Special Santa Appearance. Your children find Santa Claus has fallen asleep while delivering presents in your home. to Catch Santa sleeping after delivering presents approximately 15 minutes

When I tiptoed downstairs on Christmas morning, I couldn't believe my eyes—Santa Claus was asleep in our big armchair! His red coat was draped neatly over the back, and his black boots were resting on the ottoman. His hat was tilted to one side, and his beard looked even fluffier up close. Beside him, the empty cookie plate and a half-drunk glass of milk sat on the table, and his sack was slouched over with just a hint of shiny wrapping paper peeking out.

He snored softly, and his belly did a little jiggle with each breath, just like in the stories! I wanted to wake him up so badly, but I didn't. Instead, I sat cross-legged on the floor, watching him, wondering if the reindeer were waiting on the roof. It felt like the most magical secret—Santa had stayed a little longer this year, just for us!

Christmas Day:

$500.00 per Appearance for approximately ½ hour
Additional time charged in ¼ hour increments

It was Christmas Day, and just when we thought all the magic was over, there was a knock at the door. When we opened it, there stood Santa Claus himself, as jolly as ever! His red suit was so bright it looked like it had caught the sunlight, and his big black boots had just a touch of snow on them. His cheeks were rosy, his beard was as fluffy as freshly fallen snow, and his eyes sparkled like he knew every secret of Christmas joy.

"Ho Ho Ho! Merry Christmas!" he bellowed, stepping inside with a sack slung over his shoulder. The whole room filled with excitement as he greeted everyone by name, like he had known us forever. Santa sat by the tree and listened as the little ones told him all about their favorite presents. He even had a few extra gifts in his sack—small surprises he said he had saved just for this visit!

He told stories about the North Pole, the reindeer, and how Rudolph always leads the way when the weather gets foggy. We all sang Christmas carols together, and Santa's deep, jolly voice made it sound like a real holiday concert.

Before he left, he posed for photos with everyone, making silly faces with the kids and even putting his hat on Grandpa. "Be good, and I'll see you next year!" he said with a twinkle in his eye, and with one last hearty "Ho Ho Ho!" he disappeared as magically as he arrived. It was a Christmas we'd never forget!
