GREEN BROOK, NJ -The Green Brook Lions Club announces the award of up to $10,000 of scholarships to assist residents graduating from High School in 2023. Five different scholarships are available to Green Brook residents; the Green Brook Lions Club Scholarship, the David T. Mc Garry Scholarship, the Prichard-Murphy Memorial Scholarship, the Kenneth G. Herrmann Scholarship, and the Sebastiano "Sal" Failla Scholarship. More than one recipient may be selected for each scholarship, based on qualifications.

The Green Brook Lions Club Scholarship applicant must be a Green Brook resident who demonstrates a reasonably high level of academic achievement and be of good character. The student must continue their formal education in a two- or four- year college or a vocational program. The main consideration will be the applicant's involvement in working with the handicapped, the infirm or the less fortunate, and show their involvement in community service.

The David T. McGarry Scholarship applicant must be a Green Brook resident who will continue their formal education in a two- or four- year college and be pursuing a degree in business, and must show good math skills, exemplified by good grades and advanced classes.

The Prichard-Murphy Memorial Scholarship applicant must be a Green Brook resident who demonstrates a reasonably high level of academic achievement and be of good character. The student must continue their formal education in a two- or four- year college or a vocational program. The main requirement is that the candidate will be continuing their education in the field of education or fine arts.

The Kenneth G. Herrmann Scholarship applicant must be a Green Brook resident who will continue their formal education in a two- or four- year college and be pursuing a degree in engineering, and must show good math skills, exemplified by good grades and advanced classes.

The Sebastiano "Sal" Failla Scholarship applicant must be a Green Brook resident who will continue their education in vocation skills or a trade school and has maintained good high school grades.
