October, 2020

It's the Fourth Quarter!

Hello, Friends.

It's October, which means 2020 is almost over! So, clean the snout-nosed butterflies off your windshield, put on your fall facemask, and enjoy the cooler weather.

October is Pastor Appreciation Month, and what better time to show our pastors our appreciation than during this pandemic?! Pastors are putting in extra hours, acquiring new skills, serving in creative ways, AND feeling added stress every day because of the pandemic. They need appreciation and affirmation - AND THEY NEED SOME REST. Please make sure they get plenty of both.

In the Smith household, Robyn has been helping our youngest granddaughter, Annabelle, go to virtual kindergarten - in Spanish - while her parents work full-time. Every other week Robyn goes to Austin, or Annabelle and Maggie come to Kerrville. Which means I alternate from living in an empty house to a house with three generations of girls. (I prefer it when the girls are here.) We are all making adjustments to cope with Covid-19, and I know mine are pretty mild compared to so many others. I pray God continues to give us strength and creativity as we cope.

I want to remind you that our Rio Texas Annual Conference session is this Saturday, October 3, beginning at 8:00AM. It is online this year, so follow the link below to register, if you haven't already. All delegates will need a device (computer, laptop, tablet or phone) and an Internet connection to watch and participate in Annual Conference. And each delegate will need a smartphone and the Election Buddy app in order to vote. If you need a reliable wi-fi connection, you may attend annual conference at San Angelo: First UMC, Junction UMC, San Saba UMC, or perhaps at your home church. Here is the link to the Annual Conference Zoom meeting: <https://riotexas.org/annual-conference-2020>. I'll see you there!

I also want to call to your attention two statements regarding the Rio Texas Conference commitment to Anti-Racism in our structures, practices and witness. The first is a pastoral letter from Bishop Robert Schnase: <https://riotexas.org/news/2020/9/23/anti-racism-statement>. Please read this letter prior to our annual conference session, as Bishop Schnase will be referencing it at some point during the day. The second statement is a Covenant on Anti-Racism that I and my friends on the extended cabinet have crafted and signed: <https://riotexas.org/news/2020/9/23/covenant-on-anti-racism>.

This is important and difficult work that effects all of us. I am proud of the pro-active steps being taken; and I am always proud to be your DS.

Blessings and Peace,
Andy

A Word from Ken:

“Come, follow me,” Jesus said, “and I will make you fishers of men.” Mark 1:17

Exciting news from the Conference!!! Mark your calendars, on January 30th, the Conference will host a one-day virtual Lay Servant Basic class. This class will be offered bilingually. It can be done in a group setting, for example in your church, especially if your members do not have good Wi-Fi. The only thing to remember is that the group should still practice good social distancing and, everyone who attends needs to be registered. I would love for the West District to have the most participants, just my vanity at work, but also the more people that attend the better for our district. So...start spreading the word and as soon as the site is ready to start registering, I will pass the word.

God Bless.

Ken

Creating and Vitalizing Congregations New People, New Places Initiative

The office of Mission Field Ministries focuses and stewards the vision and mission of making disciples. How can existing congregations reach more new people, younger people and more diverse people? We applaud where the people and churches of the Rio Texas Conference have been successful in these goals and we desire to help where we have found such fruitfulness lacking.

Beginning in 2015, a new line item was created specifically setting aside funds for New People, New Places. Money for this area came from a realignment of our apportioned dollars so the local churches would not experience an increase in apportionments.

These funds will be distributed through a grant process 3 times a year. This money will be available to local churches and districts that demonstrate how they intend to use this money to reach new people for Christ or to be in new places in Christ. Funds may be used for, but are not limited to, program expenses, capital expenditures (not renovations), and so forth. No more than 20% of the total grant amount shall be allocated for administrative or staff expenses, ensuring at least 80% for initiative expenses. All grants shall be for one year; however, applications may be submitted for a second year based on fruitfulness. Please refer to “Certain General Restrictions,” below. All funding will be subject to availability, yet special attention and consideration will go to Latin/Hispanic Ministries.

Theologically and missionally, our goals are Wesleyan. We want more people to discover that God’s grace is real in their lives. We want more people to respond to that grace. We want more people to grow in that grace as a disciple of Jesus Christ. In this, we transform the world around us.
