Pisa is the first liqueur made from a blend of three different nuts. It sets itself apart through its unique and distinguished bottle; premium design, look and unmistakably recognizable name.

Pisa Liqueur is a unique blend of pistachio, almond, and hazelnut (nuts that have grown around the city of Pisa in Tuscany for centuries) which are individually loved and appreciated, but once put together make a heavenly combination!

Pisa is a natural, high quality product bottled in Italy. It is easy to drink with a very smooth taste and complex mouthfeel.

In the early 1990s the inventor of Pisa Liqueur took a romantic vacation with his wife in the Tuscan countryside. While enjoying the fantastic views, scenery and each other, they opted to capture that moment forever. Instead of capturing memories with a camera, the creator, who had experience as a distiller, came up with the idea of creating this fine liqueur and dedicating it to the area and city where they had their vacation.

Pisa, which is very smooth and easy to drink, offers a fantastic nutty taste that entices you to enjoy more. Drink Pisa Liqueur at room temperature to experience the wonderful flavors that pistachio, almond, and hazelnut will bring you or add rocks to your liking and endeavor a completely different drink. Pisa Liqueur is also fabulous for cocktails or add a splash to your favorite dessert such as ice cream or Tiramisu.
