Gentle, Reflective, and Rooted in John 14:27

My old Bible sits on a small wooden table by the window, its pages worn, soft from years of turning. Every morning, before the action starts, I sit beside it and listen as my quiet time unveils. Life sometimes has not been kind. Sadnesses sometimes visits my home, and fear follow those footsteps. Yet this Book remained, steady and patient.

One morning, as the sun crept through the window, my eyes fell on the words of Jesus
"Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."

— John 14:27

Those words felt different from any promise the world had ever made to me. The world's peace comes and goes—dependent on money, health, or people helping. But God's Word speaks with quiet authority, as if it had already seen tomorrow and knew God will hold me.

I have learned, over time, that to value Scripture is to treat it not as decoration, but as direction. When I trust God's Word, I find that He never fails me. People brake promises. Circumstances change. But God proved Himself trustworthy again and again.

Obedying the Word isn't always easy. Sometimes it ask me to forgive when I want to harden my heart, or to wait when I want to run ahead. Yet each step of obedience leads me closer to life, not loss. The Word gently points me toward salvation, reminding me that my hope is not in this passing world, but in Christ himself. I still belong!

When I don't know what choice to make, Scripture guides my steps, like a lamp in the dark. When my thoughts feel tangled and heavy, it gives me wisdom, steadying my mind. In my saddest moments, when tears fall onto the thin pages, God's Word meets me there—comforting me, holding my heart together when nothing else could.

And slowly, something unexpected happens. Joy returns.

Not the loud, fleeting kind—but a deep happiness rooted in truth. A peace that stays even when problems didn't disappear. Just as Jesus promised, it was not peace "as the world giveth," but peace settles my soul and reminds me I was never alone.

The Bible still rests by the window today. Its pages are still worn. But my heart is no longer troubled, nor afraid. I have learned that God's Word is more than words—it is life, light, wisdom, salvation, comfort, and peace. And in trusting it, I found that God had been faithful all along.

Your Servant, David

Dear Friends and Neighbors:

The Ashe County Board of Commissioners will present the 41st Annual Volunteer Awards Program to honor outstanding volunteers and organizations in the county. The award ceremony is scheduled for Thursday, April 16th with refreshments at 6:00 and the Awards Ceremony at 7:00 in the Auditorium at the Ashe County High School.

The success of the awards program depends on your willingness to nominate deserving individuals and organizations. The winners of the Volunteer of the Year Awards are determined by a short written essay describing the volunteer services performed. Please attach no more than a one page typed or legibly written essay. Please be as thorough as possible as this information is used to determine the volunteers of the year in the Individual, Family, Group/Team, Youth, Senior, Faith-Based Entity, Corporation/Business, National Service, and Director of Volunteers categories.

Nomination forms can be found online at www.asheaging.com or email jenniferrichardson@ashecountygov.com. Nomination forms must be returned to Jennifer Richardson at Generations Ashe no later than 5:00 pm, Friday, February 13, 2026 or they may be emailed to jenniferrichardson@ashecountygov.com. Nominations will not be accepted after this date.

Ashe County owes a great deal of gratitude to the hundreds of individuals who volunteer their time in so many ways to make our county a better place to live and work. Since Hurricane Helene hit Ashe County, we have seen so many people giving of their time and talents to help their neighbors. We want to take this opportunity to honor those volunteers and show our heartfelt appreciation for the services they have provided, but we need your help. Get those nominations coming in.

For further information, please contact Jennifer Richardson, Ashe County Volunteer Coordinator, at 336-246-4347.

Sincerely,

Adam Stumb

The Ashe Food Council was formed in November 2025 in order to bring together leaders in the food distribution area to identify gaps, develop strategies to address those gaps, and work together to support our community to improve food security and systems, not just for today but for the future.

One of the many focus areas of the Food Council is home-delivered meals in the County. There are two agencies which currently offer a Mobile Meal program – Ashe Outreach Ministries and Generations Ashe. Ashe Outreach provides over 1,000 meals per month to elderly shut-ins and those recovering from medical procedures covering the west and northwest parts of the county with five delivery routes. Generations Ashe provides home delivered meals to home-bound adults each weekday and offers a backpack program to adults for the weekends.

Ashe County has a need for increased home delivered meals. In addition to the nutritional value these meals offer, it also offers a wellness check and a friendly face to those who are shut-in. These deliveries create invaluable relationships between the volunteers and the recipients that can bring a much needed blessing. We are seeking volunteers to assist both Ashe Outreach and Generations with the meals they provide. If anyone can help, please reach out to these organizations directly to learn more.

Ashe Outreach Ministries – Dave Ahrens – 336-336-1314

Generations Ashe – 336-246-2461
or info@generationsashe.org

If a church or church ministry would be interested in providing their own home-delivered meal program, that would also be very beneficial to our community. If there is a church or ministry interested, please reach out to: Tracie McMillan or Michele Blevins at Ashe Department of Social Services.

Rev. Paul Langston with NC Baptist On Mission in Cary, NC pays Rev. David Blackburn, AMS at Ashe Baptist Association a visit in January. Always enjoy when Paul visits. He is definitely a true Baptist on Mission and just a wonderful Christian man spreading God's Word as he is the hands and feet of Jesus in so many places.

David White, another Baptist On Mission guy, has been a God Send for Ashe County since Helene. We do love and appreciate Mr. White. Below are pictures of some of the jobs he has been working on. Mr. White is still here in Ashe working, The ABA Campground has been his home away from home in Lexington for quite some time now along with the many volunteers that come to help from across our country.

If you see a couple of men with the Yellow Baptist On Mission attire on here in our county, it is probably Paul or David, so be sure and say Hi and Thank You!!!! We love & appreciate these men & volunteers!

January 8th - Quarterly Executive Committee Meeting at Big Flatts Baptist

Meeting was called to order by Moderator Jerry Powers. Mr. Jackie Blevins led the congregation in a hymn followed by devotion by Butch Miller. 17 Associational Churches were represented with 35 representatives of the churches present. Reports were given, and following Old and New Business we adjourned with alter prayer. Offering taken at the door for Ashe Really Cares totaled $30. Next meeting will be held April 9th at Bristol Baptist Church at 7 pm.

Discipleship Tip of the Month

Is snow a blessing from God?

Yes, snow is seen as a blessing from God symbolizing purity, forgiveness, provision, and a call to reflection, even though it brings inconvenience; it's viewed as God's creation that provides rest, protects wildlife, and offers spiritual lessons about being cleansed from sin. On frosty mornings when my body is slow and doesn't want to move, I feel powerless, like I just want to curl up and do nothing. It's so different from those summer days when I feel all-powerful, filled with energy to socialize, travel and live. Yet, getting up and going for a walk, can help remind me of God. Though he may seem distant in our winter struggles, this verse reveals His presence in the weather. All the days of the earth, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease. — Genesis 8.22
