Ashe County Children's Christmas Project 2026: Working Together to Bring Christmas Joy

Christmas is a special time of year in Ashe County, North Carolina, especially when we see our community come together to make the season brighter for children and their families. The Ashe County Children's Christmas Project 2026 is a wonderful example of what can happen when people work together with a caring heart and a desire to help others.

Through the Ashe Baptist Association's 43 churches, other churches, businesses, government agencies, schools, DSS, Partnership of Ashe, individuals, factories, and Family Central, WKSK Radio, Parks and Recreation, our community joins hands to help provide a better Christmas for up to 1,000 children from families with incomes at or below 133% of the poverty level.

Each child receives bags filled with toys, clothing, games, and books, along with a fully loaded backpack of school supplies. These gifts mean more than presents under a Christmas tree. They are reminders to children and parents that their community cares about them and wants them to experience the joy and hope of Christmas.

A project with a budget of approximately $220,000 does not happen by itself. It takes generous donors, dedicated volunteers, and faithful supporters from across Ashe County. Everyone has a part to play! Volunteers are needed at Family Central to process the intake bags of gifts and move them to the gym for distribution. Runners help carry the bags from the gym to the families receiving them. Gideons International volunteers are there to offer Bibles, sharing the message of God's love, while Santa Claus greets the children and adds a little extra Christmas excitement.

This project demonstrates the power of cooperation. Churches, schools, businesses, government agencies, organizations, and individuals may have different responsibilities throughout the year, but at Christmas, they unite around one important purpose: helping children experience a happier Christmas.

The Bible reminds us in Acts 20:35, "It is more blessed to give than to receive". Those words come alive when people give their time, money, talents, and love to help children in need. Ashe County is blessed to have people willing to work together for the good of others. The Children's Christmas Project is not simply about distributing toys, clothes, books, games, and school supplies. It is about sharing kindness, restoring hope, and showing families that they are not forgotten. When a community works together, Christmas becomes brighter for everyone. May the Ashe County Children's Christmas Project 2026 continue to remind us that the greatest gift we can give is a heart filled with love, generosity, and the true spirit of Christmas—the love of Jesus Christ.

Your Servant, David

Greetings in the name of our precious Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ!

"O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever." -Psalm 136:1
This month we celebrate Thanksgiving. And to be honest, we should be thanking God EVERYDAY! Allow me to suggest something to you:

• When you pray, and it should be a constant conversation all day long, begin with thanksgiving and praise. Begin by praising Him! This will not only give you comfort and peace, but it will begin your conversation with Father God in the best way possible.
•Praise God throughout your day. Doing this takes your mind off your daily struggles and problems and places your mind on God, the One who can help you through them.
•Pray before your meals, thanking Him for all blessings. And again I say, make your conversations with the Lord ALL DAY LONG.

Thanksgiving is an all-day process. It should never end. Thank Him in the morning. Thank Him in the noon time. Thank Him in the evening. Thank Him in the night. As someone once told me, begin listing your blessings from God, beginning with your salvation. If you get to number ten without crying, you better check up on your soul. God has provided us all with so many blessings. O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good. His mercy lasts forever!

Items needed this month at Ashe Really Cares:
• Jiffy Cornbread Mix
•Stuffing (stove top)
• Cranberry Sauce
•Canned Sweet Potatoes or Yams
• Canned Pumpkin
• Linens
• Fall and Winter Coats
• Plush Toy Animals

Just as a reminder, I am also Ashe County's Faith Health Connector. I meet with several people every month, assisting them with their medical issues, connecting them with various agencies and offices. If you know of anyone having challenges finding the right agencies, doctor's offices, or simply needing someone to talk with, please give me a call: 828-964-8837.

Remember, God is good….. All the time!!!

for

Rev. Jonathan Toliver

Rev. Toliver has been elected as the new pastor at Riverview Missionary Baptist. Jonathan and his wife, Marlena, reside in Todd, NC.

We look forward to working with Rev. Toliver and Riverview Missionary Baptist.

Faith communities play an important role in supporting individuals and families during challenging times. Whether someone is experiencing depression, anxiety, or another mental health challenge, knowing how to recognize the warning signs and respond with compassion can make a difference. Researchers at Appalachian State University are offering Mental Health First Aid (MHFA) <https://mentalhealthfirstaid.org/individuals/help-adults/> training to churches and faith communities in the High Country, free of charge. Mental Health First Aid is an evidence-based training program designed to help individuals recognize signs of mental health challenges, provide support, and connect those in need to the appropriate resources. Just as traditional first aid prepares you to respond to physical health emergencies, MHFA provides skills to respond to mental health crises. The training involves two hours of self-paced online instruction, followed by six hours of in-person training, which can be scheduled to accommodate participating churches. Participants will need access to a computer and an email address. There is also an optional research opportunity to help researchers better understand how MHFA can best serve rural communities. Research participation is voluntary and is not required to attend the free training. Those who choose to participate in the study may receive up to $40 in Amazon gift cards for completing surveys. We would love to hear from churches, pastors, and community members who may be interested in this opportunity! Together, we can strengthen the support for individuals and families throughout our communities. For more information or to express interest, please contact the Appalachian State University MHFA Research Team at MHFAResearch@appstate.edu.

Please let me know if you'd like any changes/edits and I'm happy to work on them!

Warmly, Shelby Holmes Graduate Research Assistant for Dr. Lisa Curtin

RE: Stop Hunger Drive

The Ashe County Volunteer Initiative Program is holding a 'Stop Hunger Drive' which will run through November 30th and We Need Your Help! Our local food pantries can buy in bulk at lower prices than you can pay in the store, allowing them to save money on resources, and get the most-needed items to people facing hunger. Would your church be willing to choose one Sunday in October or November as "Stop Hunger Sunday" and take up a donation to support our Stop Hunger Drive? Checks can be made out to Generations Ashe Attn: Jennifer Richardson 180 Chattyrob Lane, West Jefferson, NC 28694 and write 'Stop Hunger Drive' in the Memo Section.

Once the donations are collected, they will be dispursed amongst our local food banks. These are: Ashe Really Cares, Ashe Food Pantry, A Safe Home for Everyone, and Ashe Outreach Ministries.

It is difficult to comprehend, but in North Carolina, the food insecurity rate has risen to around 15.5%, up from 10.9% in 2021. North Carolina ranks 10th in the nation for food insecurity. The causes of food insecurity comes from Poverty, Unemployment, Low Paying Jobs, Lack of Affordable Housing, Chronic Health Conditions, lack of access to Affordable Healthcare, and recent Federal cuts in food assistance programs. Many of these individuals are going hungry because they have to choose between paying rent, utilities and buying food. This is a wonderful opportunity for you to help us in making a difference in the lives of many families in our community.

We sincerely appreciate your consideration in joining our efforts to feed our hungry friends and neighbors.

Thank you,

Jennifer Richardson
Ashe County Volunteer Coordinator

DID YOU KNOW???

In North Carolina, 1,713,790 people are facing hunger – and of them 504,790 are children.

1 in 6 people

face hunger.

1 in 5 children face hunger.

People facing hunger in North Carolina
are estimated to report needing $1,196,067,000
more per year to meet their food needs.

Driving Factors

- Rising Costs: Surging expenses for food, housing, gas, healthcare, and childcare have outpaced wage increases for many families.
- Policy and Aid Reductions: Reductions in federal support, including drops in SNAP enrollment and cuts to programs buying fresh foods for food banks, have strained charitable networks.

Discipleship Tip of the Month

Are you getting in God's way?

Isaiah 55:8 "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD."

Have you ever stopped to ask yourself, "Am I getting in God's way?"

Sometimes we pray for God to work in our lives, our churches, and our communities, but when He begins to work, we want to take control. We want Him to follow our plans, our schedules, and our ideas instead of allowing Him to lead us. Moses had to trust God when He called him to lead the children of Israel out of Egypt. Peter had to learn that God's plan was bigger than his own understanding. Even today, God calls His people to step out in faith, love others, and share the Gospel with those who need to hear it. We may become so busy doing things our way that we fail to listen to His voice.
