READ TO REPRESENT

Dear Aspirants, In order to make your approach towards current affairs more practical, The Academy has chalked out an innovative and interesting activity. It is guaranteed that you will get good hold over prelims & mains GS papers, provided you involve yourself in this activity with more DILIGENCE, PERSISTENCE and CONSISTENCY. All are asked to make best use of this new initiative.

So what is this activity?
Activity is to read THE HINDU more actively.

What is active reading?
"Reading not only for learning but also for representing" is called ACTIVE LEARNING.

Representing! To whom?
To your co-aspirants.

So what's the plan?
1. 3 aspirants come together to form a group.
2. Each such group will choose one topic from the syllabus, on consensus among yourself.
3. Then you cover all current issues pertaining to that topic more elaborately from The Hindu on day to day basis. (However you also focus on other topics)
4. At the end of the week you present your learnings pertaining to the topic which you have chosen to the entire class.
5. Similarly other groups dose the same with rest of the topics to you.
6. In case your performance is not approved by the class you need to resubmit yourself to the class.
7. By this you cover entire months current issues more AUTHENTICALLY, BROADLY and RELEVENTLY.

Choose one among the following topics on yours and your groups interest.

1. POLITY & CONSTITUTION
2. ECONOMY
3. SOCIAL ISSUES
4. INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS
5. SECURITY
6. ENVIRONMENT
7. S & T
8. CULTURE
9. GOVERNMENT SCHEMES IN NEWS

OUTCOME OF THE PROGRAM

1. You develop a disciplined and targeted approach to tackle the VAST current affairs.
2. You read here not only to learn but to represent it, which helps in CONSOLIDATION and RETENTION.
3. You work in SYNERGY rather in silos, which helps to know MULTYDIMENSIONS of every issue.
4. You will be able to SUSTAIN the process since you are accountable to the class.
5. Every day you will be reading THE HINDU with reference to UPSC syllabus without fail.
