And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching. Hebrews 10:24-25

Where is the time going? As I write this newsletter article, May is just around the corner. Winter coats have finally, finally been put away and the temperatures are gradually beginning to rise (although after I wrote this, there was a freeze warning out last night!). Flowers and trees are blooming beautifully and spring is here at last. Mother's Day is in a couple of weeks and soon kids will be out of school. Simply, wow!

The time of Lent, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and glorious Easter Sunday are all behind us now but let's keep the Easter spirit of new life with us. That shouldn't be too hard as new life abounds around us. Where have you experienced resurrection in your life? Where have you experienced new life?

The risen Christ, the spirit of Christ, invites us all into Christian community. Many of us here at Fellowship experience a rich community life together whether it's praying and caring for our members and friends on our prayer and care teams; gathering and assembling personal kits, school supplies, food pantry or buddy bag items; studying the Bible and Augsburg Confession together; sharing fellowship with our men's breakfast, women's dinner, or guys' night out; volunteering at the food pantry or First English; and we can't forget worshipping together.

If you are seeking a deeper sense of belonging and joy, or maybe you don't even know what you are seeking, please check out any of these activities or groups. During the summer months we have some extra opportunities available. On Sunday evenings, weather permitting, we will be starting Burgers and Basketball up soon and can always use some help grilling and serving the youth. Amazing Grace Day Camp will be July 16-20, and volunteers are always welcome, helping out in the kitchen or helping the LOMO counselors with crafts, games, Bible studies, and other activities. I'd be happy to talk to you about any of these opportunities that are available.

During the next two months we will be celebrating our Sunday School teachers and those involved with adult studies (May 20th) and our graduating high school and college seniors (June 10th). Please let me know if you or a family member will be graduating this spring or summer.

Also, please keep Jillian Mott and Laura Powell in your prayers as they continue their preparation for the 2018 National ELCA Youth Gathering this summer. They will be joining with the youth from Resurrection Lutheran Church in Hilliard for the gathering. Please read Todd's mission interpreter article for more details.

See you in church!

“For I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God that brings salvation to everyone who believes: first to the Jew, then to the Gentile.” Romans 1:16 NIV

First, I'd like to thank everyone who was at the congregational meeting on April 8. No matter your vote or your opinion, it was important that you were there. If you didn't hear, the congregation approved PPC's recommendation to refinance our mortgage to improve our cash flow and enable us to maintain and hopefully increase our mission work.

Second, the planning for the Amazing Grace Day Camp is moving along. We have most of our afternoon activities planned now. We will be packaging pet food for Sedona Grace as we did last year, and we are having the Columbus Zoo come over one of the days to talk to the children about the zoo, and will be bringing 6 animals over for them to experience. We have 2 campers already registered! If you have neighbors, friends, or relatives who could use a free summer day camp, please let them know that we have this opportunity daily from July 16 to July 20.

Third, dust off the inviting stuff Pastor wrote about last year. We are planning to do an inviting day in the fall. Details will be coming soon. In short, we will be asking everyone to try their hand at inviting someone to meet them at church on a specific Sunday. We'll probably do a cookout after the service and have some inducement for them to come. So, dust off Pastor's old inviting exercises and start practicing. Remember, the first practice was to us "my church is ..." in a sentence with a friend or neighbor at least once a week. You might also think about creating an Elevator Pitch about Fellowship. In some articles in prior months, there were some examples. An elevator pitch could be a good way to have a quick, planned thing to say about Fellowship to lead into an invitation. Here is an example of one of the ones I created:

My church is Fellowship Lutheran Church. We make amazing things happen by sharing God's love and grace through our words and actions. We are small, but mighty. Being small makes us very friendly. But, we can still do big things – like serving meals at First English on the near-east side, hosting a free summer day camp, and having a really good musical worship service.

Would you like to meet me at Fellowship on Sunday to see for yourself?

Happy Inviting!

Your servant in Christ, Todd Engen

"The fear of the Lord teaches a man wisdom, and humility comes before honor..." Proverbs 15:33

The adult Sunday School class continues studying the Augsburg Confession. This will continue until the last day of Sunday School on May 20, 2018. The adult class will resume in September with reading the entire Bible again.

We will recognize our current Sunday School teachers on May 20th. This will be done during the worship service and at the teacher appreciation dinner following worship that day.

A big "Thank You!" to the following teachers:

First Grade - Megan Cardimen, Carol Scantland

Third/Fourth Grade - Todd Engen, Chad Laucher

Fifth/Sixth Grade - Pam Crispin, Dianna Roll

Middle Grades - Missy Hensley

High School - Pete Cardimen

Adult Class - Steve Espe, Bruce Johnson

Women's Class - Susan Wolfe

Also, students who are graduating from high school or college will be recognized on June 10. Please give Pastor Robin the information (date and place of graduation, future plans, etc., and a picture of the student).

Our next men's breakfast will on Saturday, May 12, 2018, at 8:30 a.m. All men are invited to come and eat, have fun and fellowship.

I'm still going to the mobile food pantry on Wednesday's with baked goods donated by Kroger's at Carriage Place. I will continue doing this. I'd like to see a little more organization at the mobile pantry located at Westgate Community Center. It will get better soon. The pantry still needs volunteers. I have attached a letter from LSS where help is needed. If you are interested in going to a mobile distribution point as a volunteer, we can go as a church again like before. Please let me know as I will continue on Wednesdays to help fill their pantry.

Amazing Grace Day Camp Please don't forget the Amazing Grace Day Camp on July 16-20. This is a major outreach for our church to our immediate neighbors. Please see Todd, Dianna, Pastor Robin or me if you can help or need details. Registration forms are now available and being accepted in the church office.

In His service,
Bill

2 Peter 1:5-8 - And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge.

While doing some spring cleaning, I came across an old Lutheran magazine which had a very interesting article called “Renew and Renovate”. In this article it states many interesting facts which pertain to all the discussions and exercises Fellowship has been doing to be a more inviting congregation. In the article it states:

“Nearly 30.9 percent of ELCA churches reported an average attendance of fewer than 50 people in 2012. ELCA membership decreased 14.7 percent, according to ELCA Research and Evaluation. Declining membership means doors are often closed to new ideas and, even more important, energy. Many of the stalwart, faithful members who remain active are bound by a sense of tradition and duty. Some are more comfortable to continue ministries “the way we’ve always done it.” But here is the problem: adhering to that tradition and duty formula is a sure-fire way to fizzle faith and fervor. “

So what do we do? In the same article, the answer to the problem is spiritual growth.

“That means teaching church members how to recognize God as a living, breathing, dynamic part of their lives, helping them to recover a sense of the vibrancy and activity of a God who can’t stay away. The central part of a renewing church is renewing our spiritual life first, then mission work second, vibrancy third, and then growth. Transforming and renewing our spiritual lives should be front and center as a focus of the church’s work.”

I continue to challenge every family to sign up for one slot on the 2018 host list. It is a very easy way for each of us to help bring our Fellowship family together.

As always, please add these activities to your personal calendar.

Dates To Remember:

5/20/18 Sun. Teacher Appreciation Potluck after 10 AM church service
(bring side dish to share)

6/24/18 Sun. Thrivent Presentation after 10 AM church service

See you in church!

Karen Espe

Director of the board of Evangelism and Fellowship

I “borrowed” this month’s newsletter article from our friends in the LCMS.

Our Father in heaven sent His Son, Jesus, to be our savior. His atoning sacrifice is the first fruits of all the dead, a pleasing aroma to His Father – and ours – so that His perfect life and death count for all who believe in Him.

He claimed us as His own children in Holy Baptism. He sustains and strengthens our faith with His Holy Word and His Body and Blood. As new creatures, who have put on Christ, we bear good fruit. We do the good works prepared for us, which He makes known to us in His Word.

By faith then, trusting in the Word of God, we do what he says because He does not lie and always keeps His promises. For “without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him” (Heb. 11:6).

And so the Lord promises: “Honor the Lord with your wealth and with the first fruits of all your produce; then your barns will be filled with plenty, and your vats will be bursting with wine” (Prov. 3:9-10).

How do we honor the Lord with the wealth that God has given us in His generosity? By giving it generously to those whom the Lord has called us to love and support: your family, your society, and your church. And His promise is that in so doing, you will never lack.

I can almost hear it now: “But that’s from the Old Testament!” But our Lord Jesus Himself gives us similar promises in the New Testament. He says, at the conclusion of the parable of the talents, “For to everyone who has will more be given, and he will have an abundance” (Matt. 25:29).

We have become conditioned against these promises because of their misuse by the peddlers of the prosperity gospel – the guys on TV who say you get rich by putting God in your debt. And thus, we miss out on the fact that God does reward temporal faithfulness in temporal matters with temporal blessings.

It’s no quid pro quo. It’s all from God’s grace, His fatherly divine goodness and mercy. But those Bible passages just quoted do in fact say what they say! It’s not the Old Testament’s problem. It’s ours. It is almost as if we have become so jaded against this that we think it a virtue to be stingy with our offerings.

But our Father in heaven still loves to bless those who bless others. He loves to give to those who give freely and generously. In fact, he challenges us to challenge Him: “Bring the full tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house. And thereby put me to the test, says the Lord of hosts, if I will not open the windows of heaven for you and pour down for you a blessing until there is no more need” (Mal. 3:10).

And so, while we don’t give so that we would get, we do receive from the Lord in order to give, and He will bless your giving with more receiving. For “He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things” (Rom. 8:32)?

“But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.”
John 14:26

In May, we remember Pentecost, which commemorates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the early followers of Jesus. Before the events of the first Pentecost, which came a few weeks after Jesus' death and resurrection, there were followers of Jesus, but no movement that could be meaningfully called “the church.”

During this season, let's take time to express our thankfulness for membership in the body of believers at Fellowship Lutheran Church. Together, we can accomplish wonderful things.

Thank you!

The Board of Worship would like to thank everyone who participated in any way during the Lent, Holy Week and Easter services, and especially those who provided food for our special meals. We also want to thank everyone who read or sang during the services.

Looking toward summer

During the summer months, our time for worship will remain the same, with Sunday worship at 10:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.

We will use a hymn-based liturgy this summer that includes the newer version of the Lord's prayer. With our liturgy change in the fall, we'll return to the older version of the Lord's prayer.

The outdoor service will be on Sunday, August 12th.

Summer Special Music

Calling musicians of all ages and abilities to help provide special music for worship during the summer season! If you are interested, please contact Andrea after worship or at vet-med2009@yahoo.com or 614-787-5935. Thanks for helping enhance our summer worship!

Sunday evening Worship and Praise services continue. Please join us at 5:00 p.m. for this 45-50 minute, “come as you are” service with singing, a short message, and communion.

Ephesians 2:8 – "For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God."

Every three years, the ELCA hosts a youth gathering. This year, it is in Houston, Texas. Two of our youth are going, Jillian Mott and Laura Powell. This is an exciting opportunity for young people to grow their faith and have a terrific experience. They come back filled with the Holy Spirit.

The theme of this year's gathering is "This Changes Everything," and is based on the verse from Ephesians above.

Grace is foundational to the Lutheran faith. This undeserved gift from God changes lives and perspectives. Because of what Christ has done, all are called into the world to serve their neighbor and share the good news.

In her book "Woo: Awakening Teenagers' Desire to Follow in the Way of Jesus," Morgan Schmidt identifies the three central desires of teens. All youth desire:

- Someone to become
- Somewhere to belong
- Something to do [that changes the world]

At the 2015 Gathering, evaluations and conversations with the attendees showed that our young people echo these desires. As young people for these things, the Gathering is a ministry that helps define some of that and opens up pathways of discovery. Ultimately, we want youth to understand the fierce love that God has for them, just as they are, and that by grace, through faith, they have been saved. When young people (or really any age person!) truly claim this reality, it indeed changes everything.

Please pray for Jillian and Laura that they experience this grace at the gathering. And, for more information on what they will be doing and experiencing, see:

ADDRESS SERVICE REQUESTED

Our Purpose: To share God's love and grace through our words and actions.

Our Vision: To be a "called and gathered" family of faith whose members so fully experience the undeserved love of God that we are moved to express that same love of God, in our relationships with one another and our whole community . . .
